

Diploma in

Leadership & Management

Mastering Conflict Management

A photograph of two business people shaking hands, overlaid with a white network diagram of interconnected nodes and lines. In the background, there is a laptop, a smartphone, and a city skyline.

Discuss the importance of conflict management <

Understand the concept of negotiation <

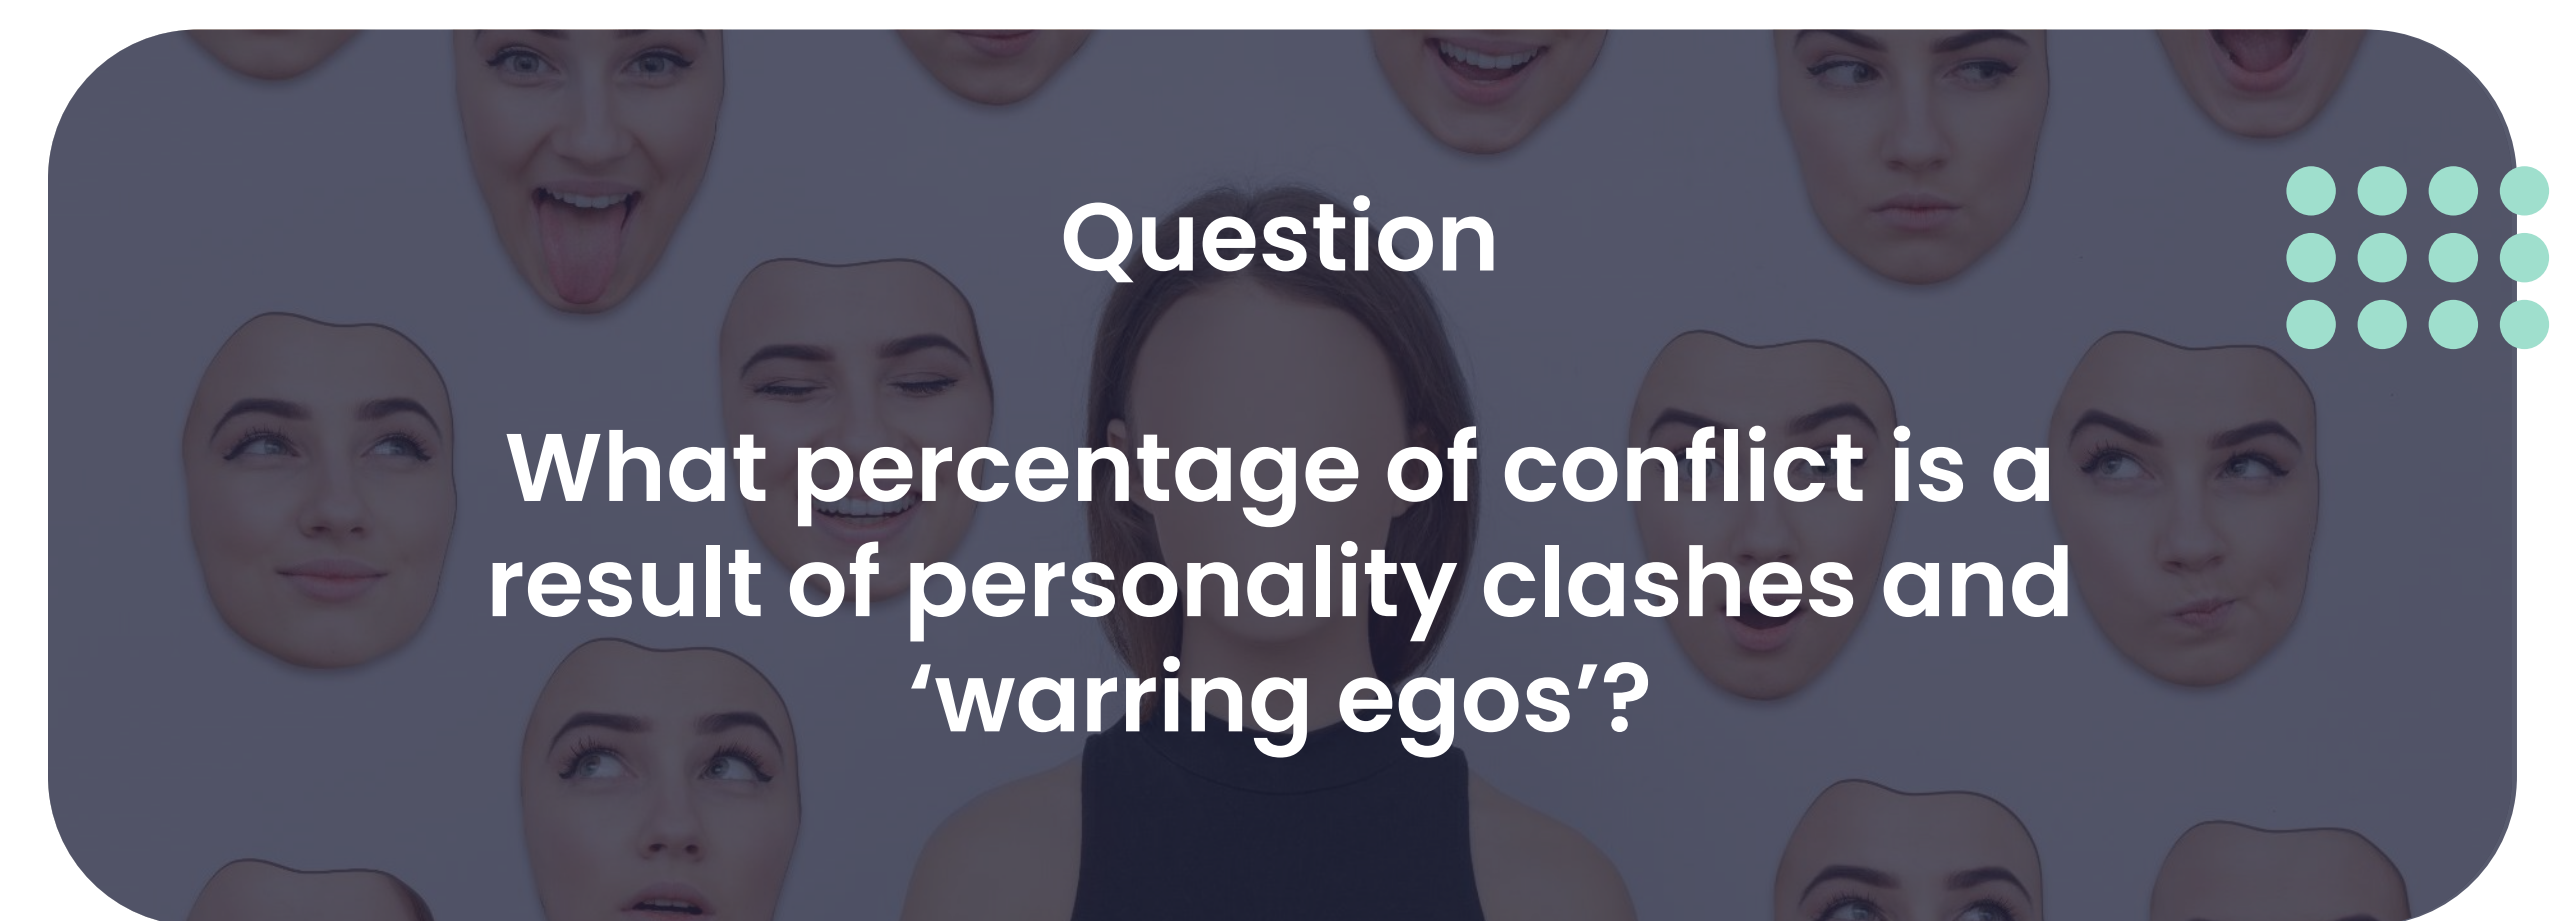

Discuss how to be assertive in times of conflict <

A red bracket graphic that starts from the right side of the 'Objectives' text and extends downwards and to the left, ending near the bottom of the image.

Objectives

»» The importance of conflict management

Question

What percentage of conflict is a result of personality clashes and 'warring egos'?

A — 49%

B — 33%

C — 12%

Conflict explained

Workplace conflict is inevitable when employees of various backgrounds and different work styles are brought together for a shared business purpose.

Types of conflict

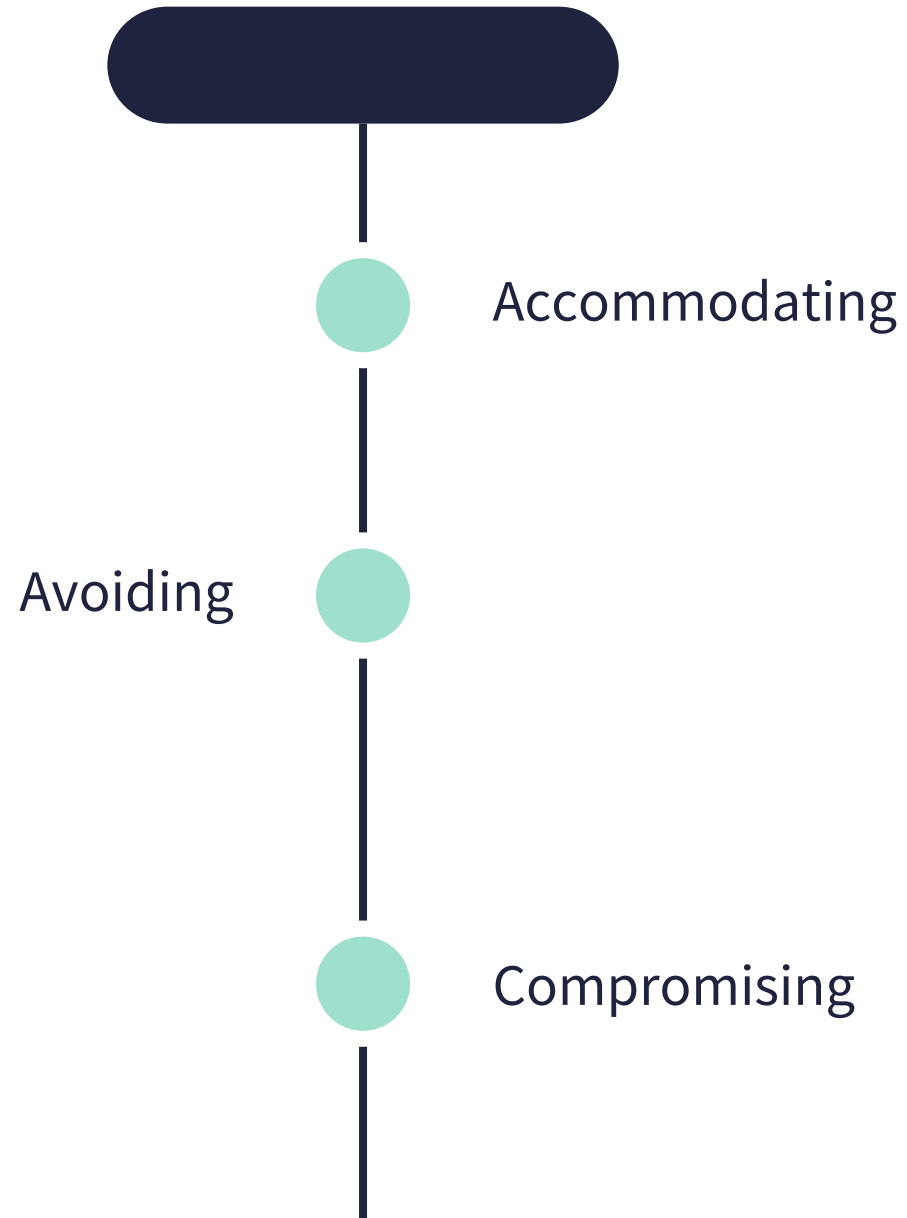

- Task conflict
- Relationship conflict
- Value conflict

What is workplace conflict management?

Conflict management refers to techniques and ideas designed to reduce the negative effects of conflict and enhance positive outcomes for all parties involved.

Conflict management styles

Competing

Collaborating

Questions to ask yourself before selecting your conflict management style

- How much do you value the person or issue?
- Do you understand the consequences?
- Do you have time and energy to devote to the conflict?

Conflict management steps

- Define the source of conflict
- Look beyond the incident
- Request solutions
- Look for solutions that can benefit all parties
- Reach agreement

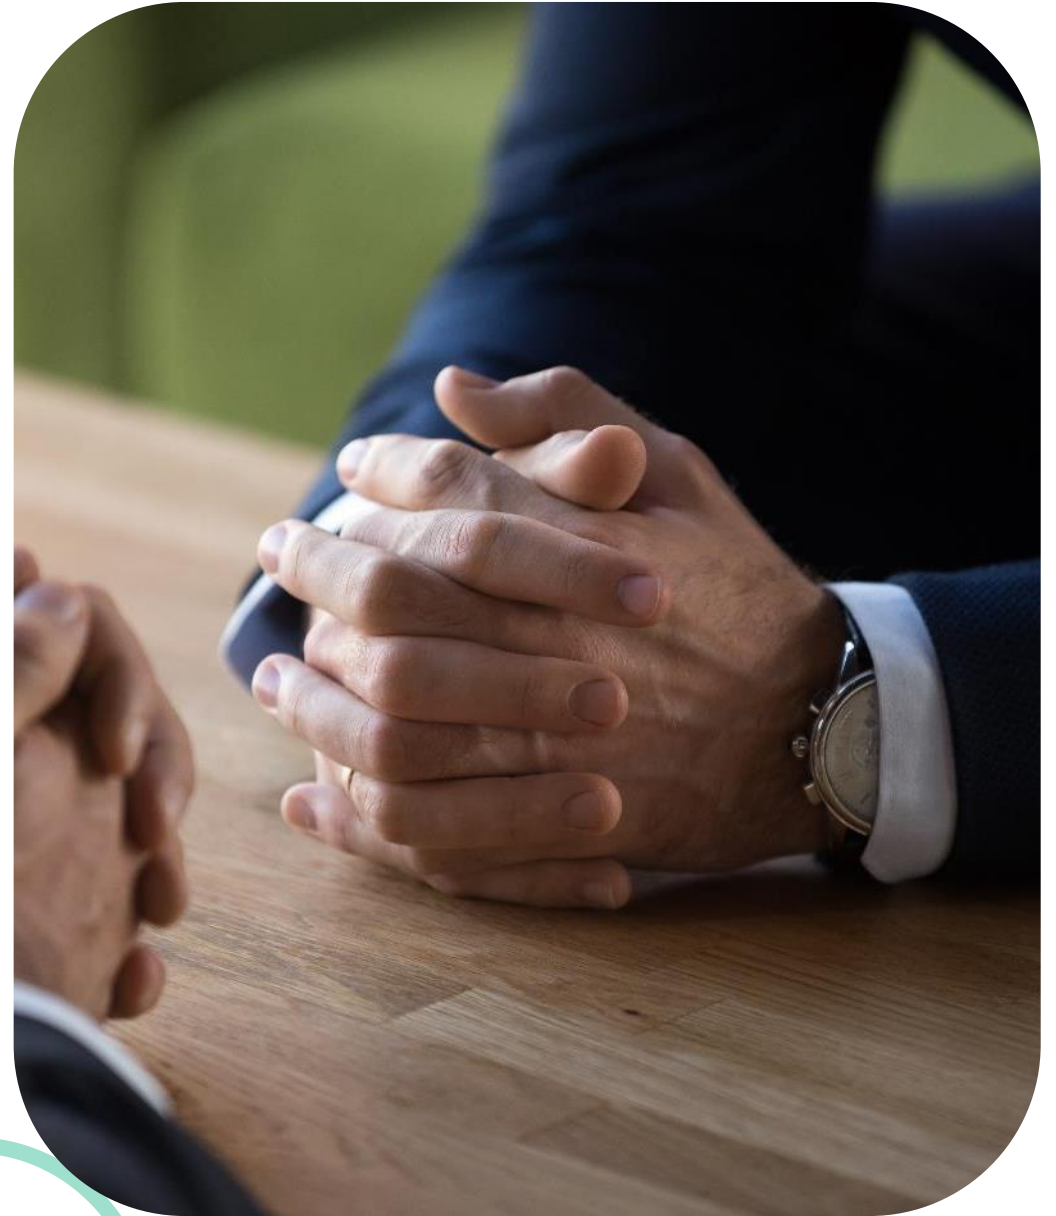

»» Conflict management negotiations

The most difficult thing in any negotiation, almost, is making sure that you strip it of the emotion and deal with the facts.

Howard Baker

Negotiation is a method by which people settle differences. It is a process by which compromise or agreement is reached while avoiding argument and dispute.

Negotiation approaches

- Informal approach
- Formal approach

Top negotiation skills

- Set-up tactics
- Value creation tactics
- Persuasion tactics
- Defensive tactics

Did you know?

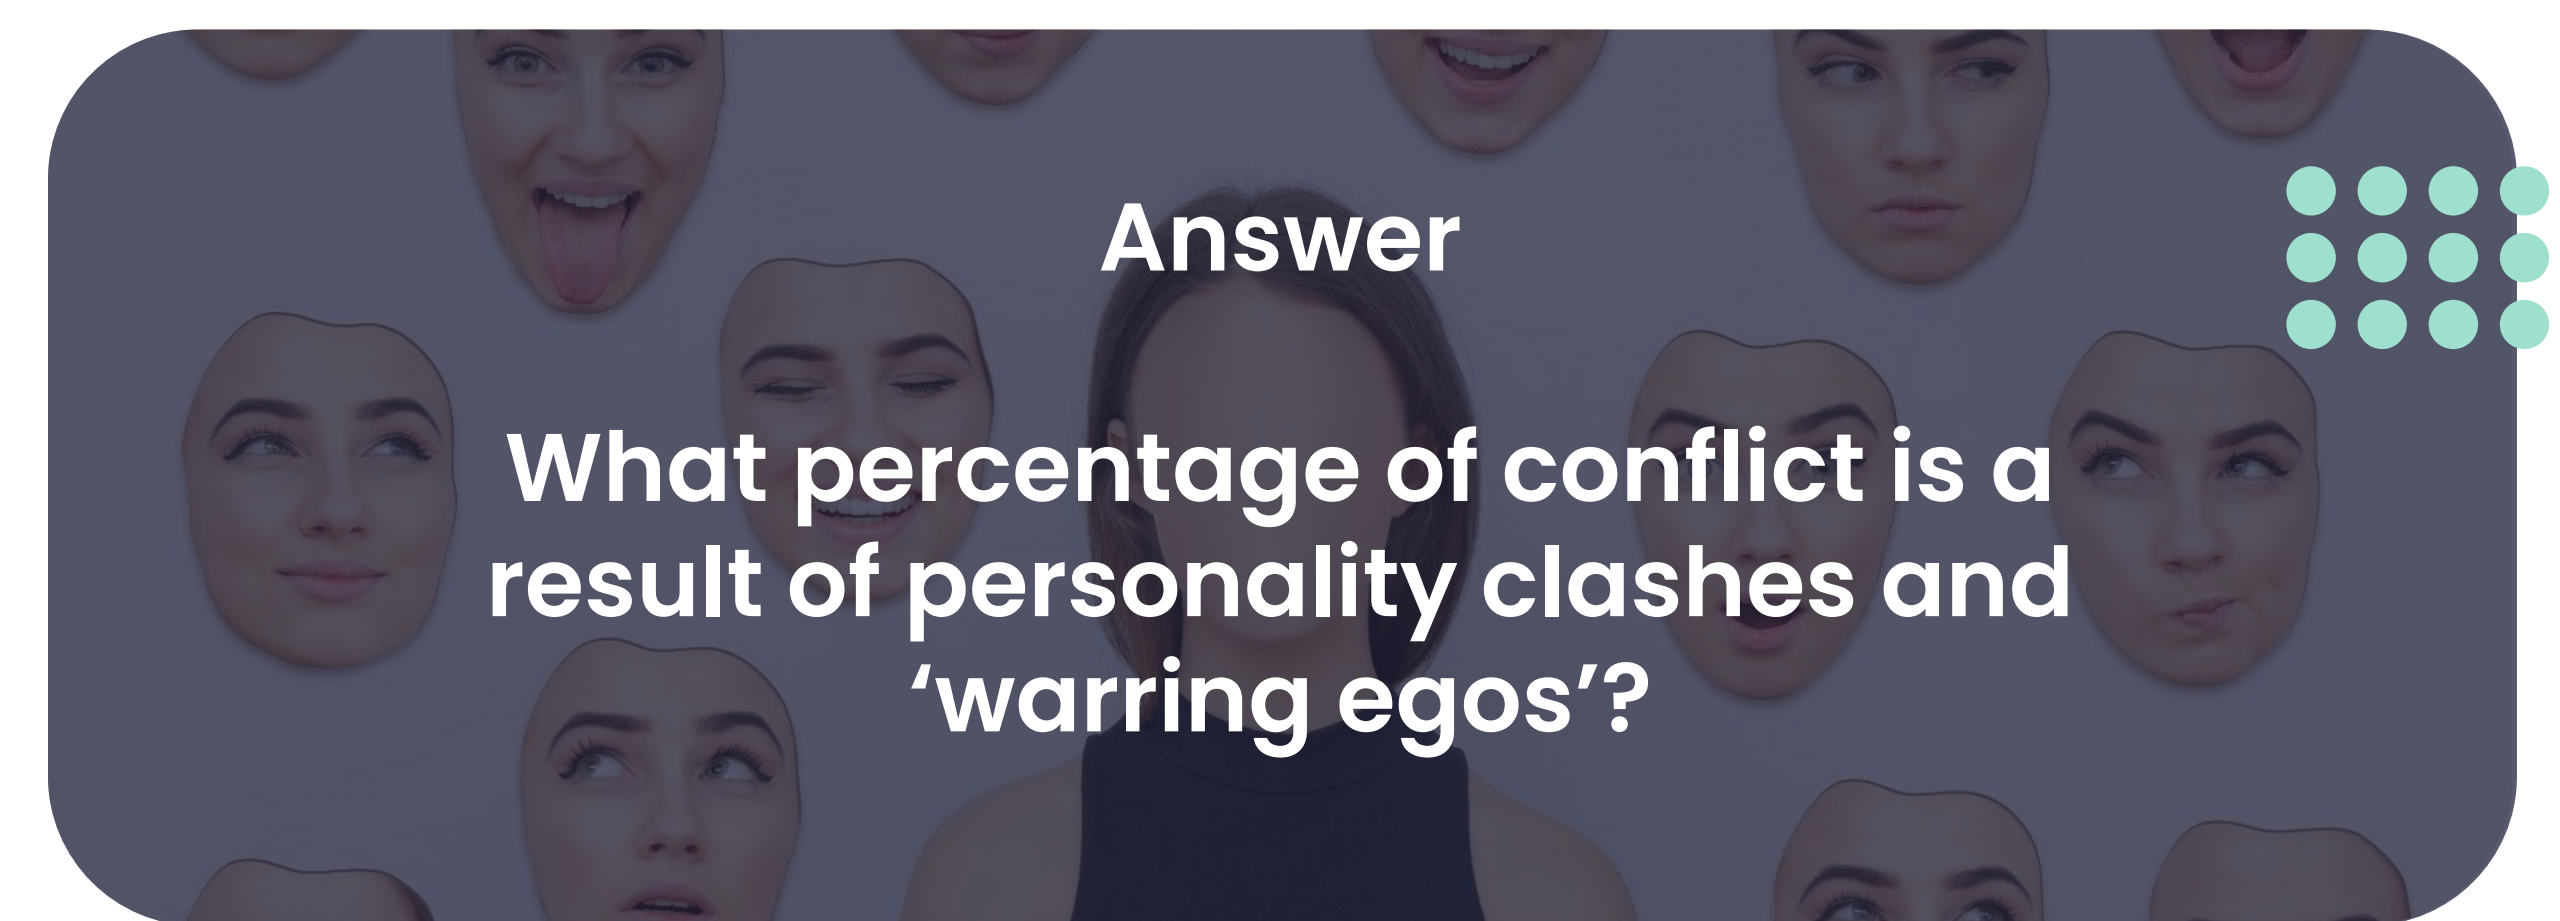

- Employees in US companies spend approximately 2.8 hours each week involved in conflict.
- 85% of employees experience some kind of conflict.
- 49% of conflict is due to personality clashes.

Being assertive in times of conflict

Answer

What percentage of conflict is a result of personality clashes and 'warring egos'?

A — 49%

B — 33%

C — 12%

Assertiveness

- Assertiveness is based on balance: it requires being forthright about your wants and needs, while still considering the rights, needs and wants of others.
- Aggressive behaviour is based on winning: you do what is in your own best interest without regard for the rights, needs, feelings, or desires of other people.

(mindtools)

How to become more assertive

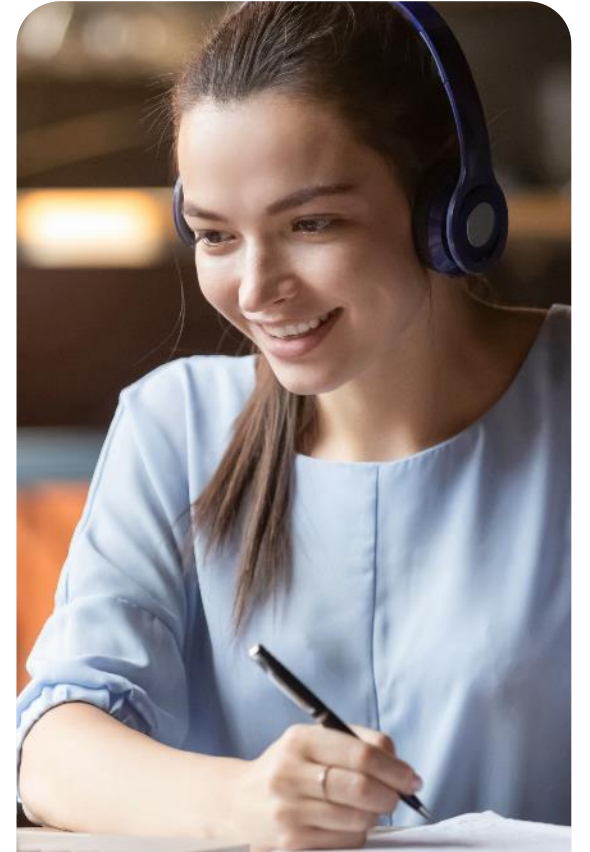

01

Limited control

02

Express positivity

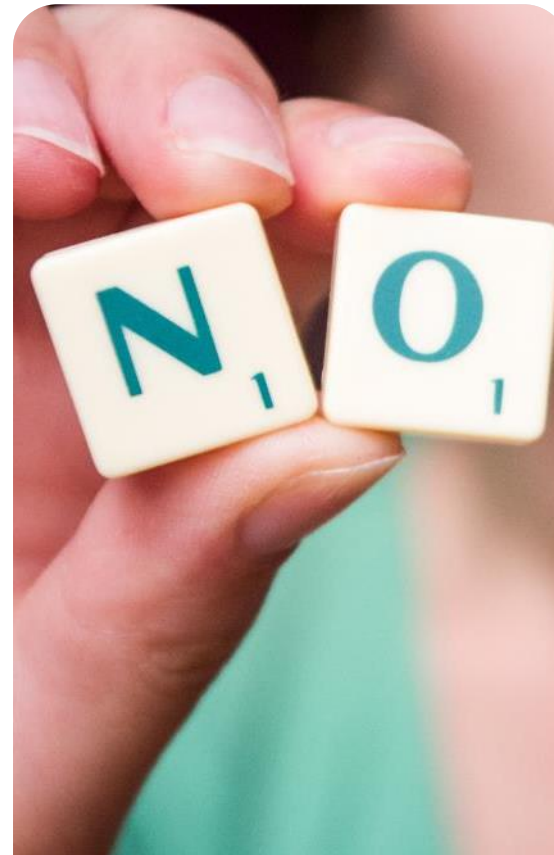

03

Accept criticism

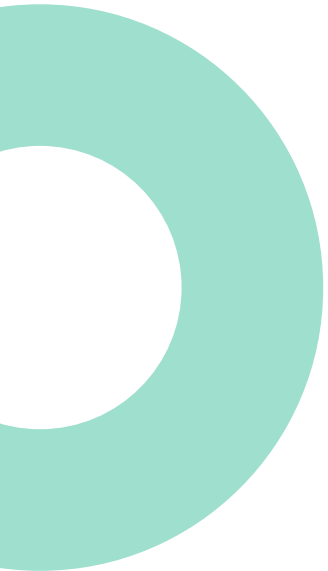

04

Say 'no'

05

Assertive communication

Challenge

- Start to select your project management tools.
- Set up your first staffing strategy.
- List the legal steps that you still need to complete for your business.

