

Diploma in

Leadership & management

Lead with Vision, Values and Purpose

Understand and discuss strategic alignment <

Explore the importance of having a company vision <

Understand the importance of purpose <

Objectives

Potential

*Be brave enough to live the life of your dreams according to your vision and purpose
instead of the expectations
and opinions of others.*

– Roy T. Bennett

Strategic alignment

The process of aligning an organisation's decisions and actions such that they support the achievement of strategic goals.

Why alignment matters

- 90% of executives fail to meet their goals.
- 80% of the difference in the organisation's performance can be explained by their level of strategic alignment.
- 51% of the difference in organisations' performance can be explained by strategic alignment and another 38% can be explained by the level of consensus / buy-in. (Transparentchoice)

Did you know?

The purpose of strategic alignment

- Focus
- Purpose
- Consistency
- Expectations
- Get buy-in

Approaches to alignment

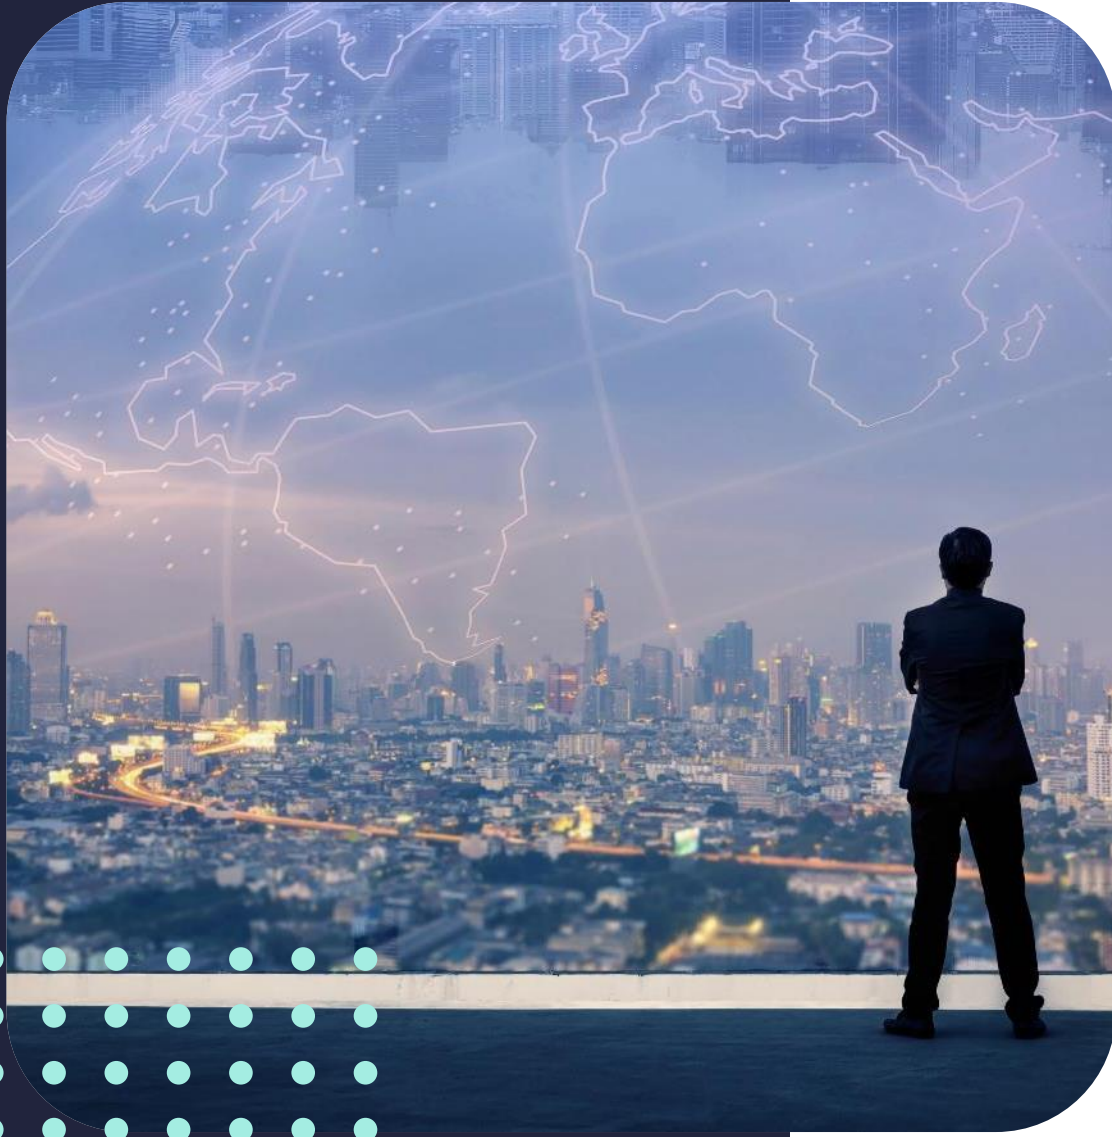

Alignment and strategy creation

Alignment and strategy communication

Alignment and strategy execution

Benefits of strategic alignment

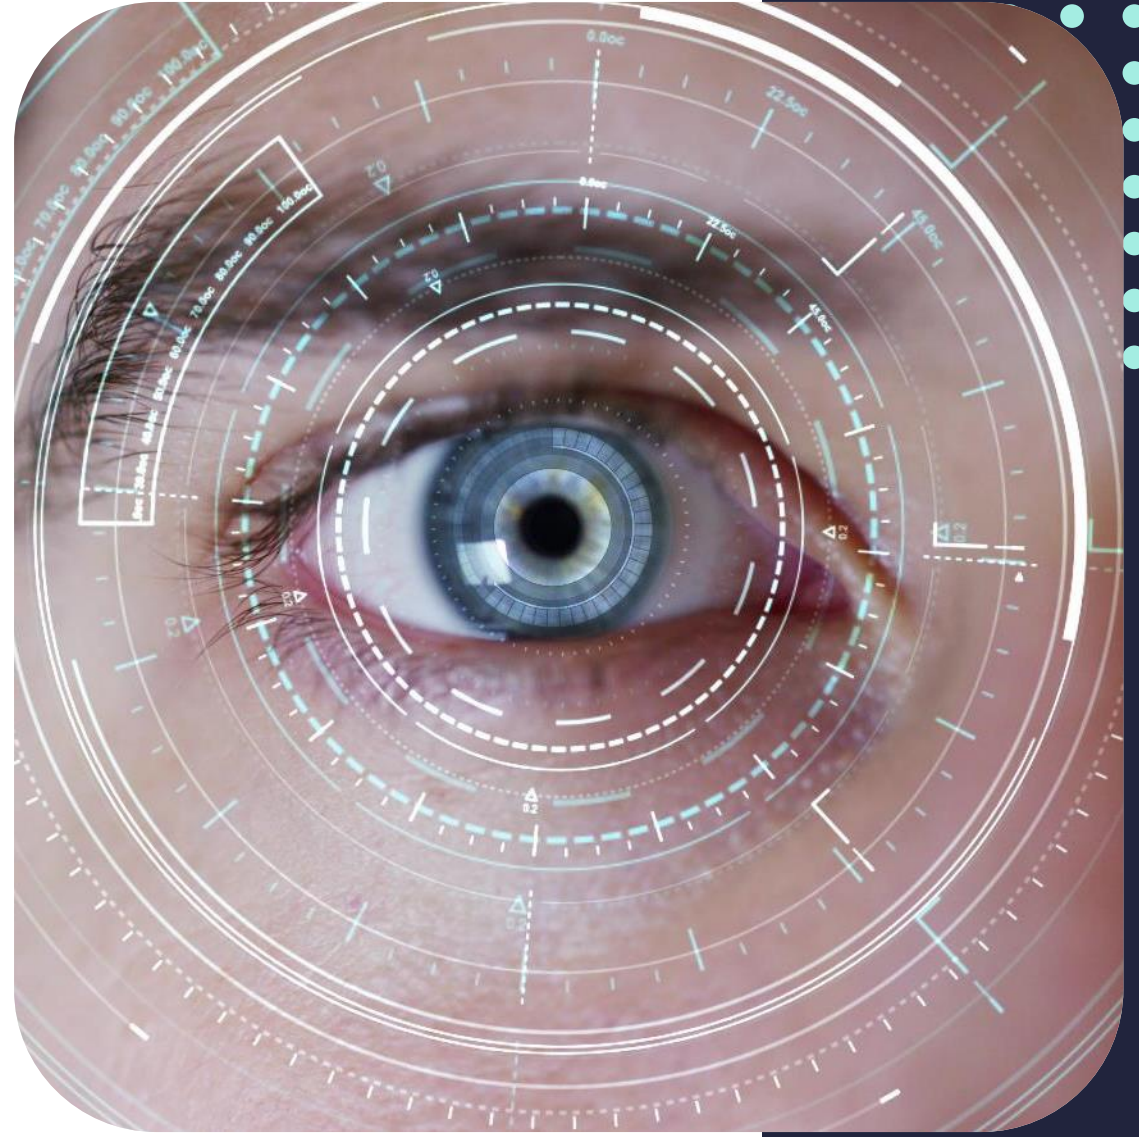

- Focus your energy
- Increase communication
- Increase collaboration
- Create purpose for the employees

The importance of vision

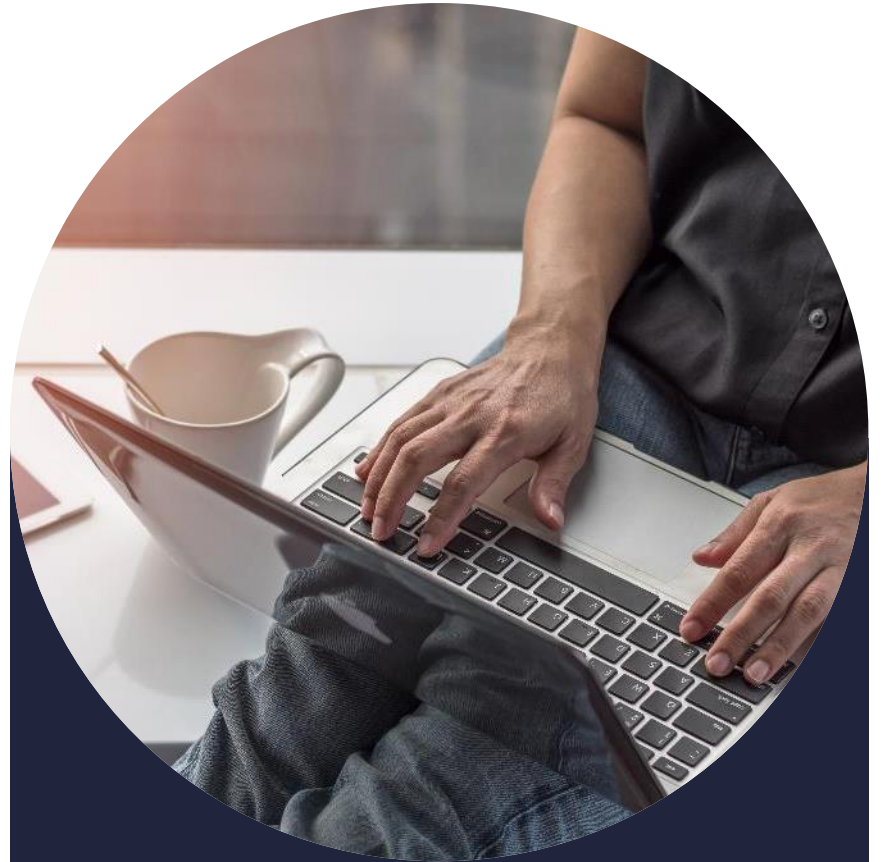

What is vision and why does it matter?

- Vision explained
- It unifies
- It inspires
- It acts as the north star for the company

Personalise your vision

- What do you envision for yourself in the next five years?
- How do you want to grow?
- What do you envision for your work?
- What do you envision for yourself as a leader or manager?

What your visions should focus on

1

Inspire and motivate

2

Increase employee satisfaction

3

Different communication channels

4

Innovation leads to improvement

What your visions should focus on

1

Words lead to action

2

Leaders are open and honest

3

The company is quick to respond

Types of resistance to change

Values guide your decisions

Values
influence

Values create clarity

Examples of company values

- American Express: Customer commitment, quality, integrity, teamwork, respect for people, good citizenship, a will to win, personal accountability.
- Facebook: Focus on impact, move fast, be bold, be open, build social value

Why leaders must have purpose

Leadership purpose

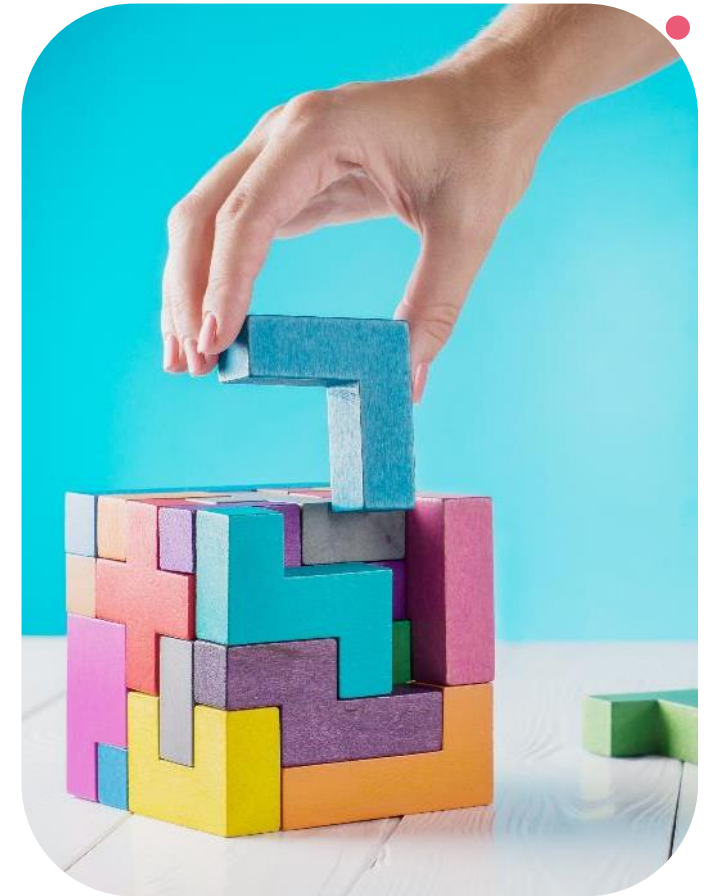

Your leadership purpose is what you are driven to achieve and deliver. It's embodied in your personal brand, which means it defines who you are and what makes you distinctive.

What is meant by purpose?

- Meaningful mental model that provides a reason for being.
- A sense of purpose is key to successful leadership.
- Purpose is created through one's life journey.

Why is purpose so compelling?

1

Inspiration emerges from purpose

2

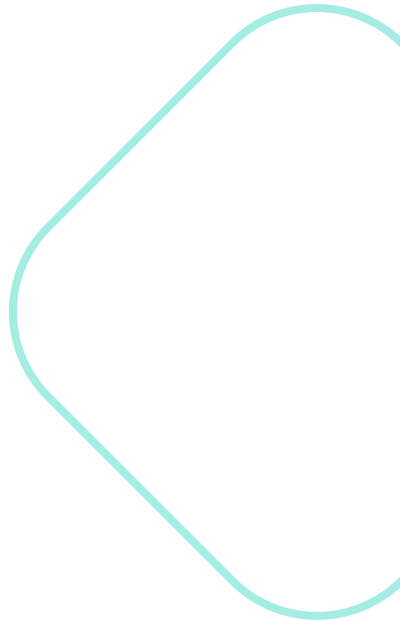

Customer benefits

3

Needed in tough times

4

A reason to believe

Why is purpose so compelling?

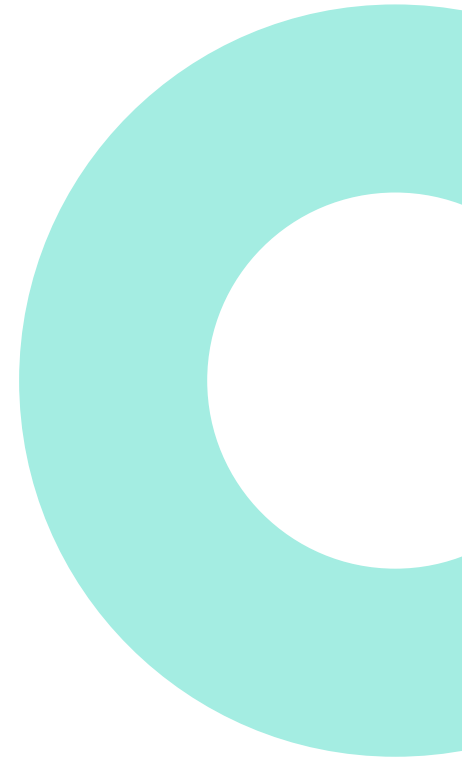

5

Needs to be lived

6

Connects the dots

How to create your own purpose statement

A graphic of a yellow piece of paper with a torn edge, revealing a white surface underneath. The text 'find your purpose' is written on the white surface.

find your purpose

The purpose statement is authentic

The purpose statement is action-orientated

The purpose statement is meaningful

How to create your own purpose statement

The purpose statement is clear

The purpose statement is inspiring

find your purpose

