

Diploma in

Leadership & management

Employee Engagement

Understand employee engagement <

Explore employee engagement tools <

Discuss leadership and engagement <

Objectives

Question

What percentage employees said that they would work harder if they were better appreciated?

A. 40%

B. 69%

C. 97%

Employee engagement

Employee engagement

Employee Satisfaction only indicates how happy or content your employees are. It does not address their level of motivation, involvement, or emotional commitment. For some employees, being satisfied means collecting a paycheque while doing as little work as possible.

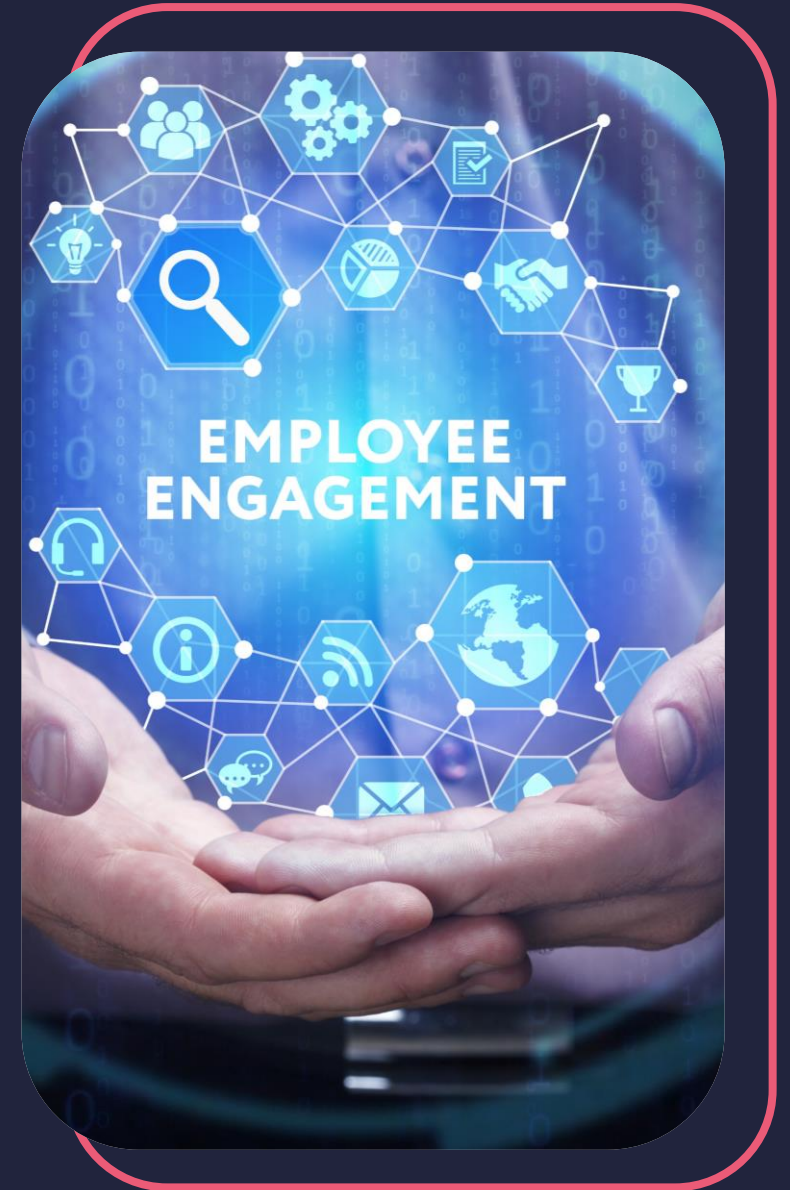

The importance of employee engagement

Employee engagement goes beyond activities, games, and events. Employee engagement drives performance. Engaged employees look at the whole of the company and understand their purpose, where, and how they fit in.

Measuring employee performance

Employee engagement surveys have been developed specifically to measure the performance, strategic alignment, competency and satisfaction of contributors. Engagement surveys must be statistically validated and benchmarked against other organisations if they are going to provide useful results.

Did you know?

- 71% of executives say that employee engagement is critical to their company's success.
- Employee engagement reduces absenteeism. In fact, a Gallup study shows that highly engaged workplaces saw 41% lower absenteeism.
- Overall, companies with high employee engagement are 21% more profitable.

Companies with high employee engagement

01

L'Oréal

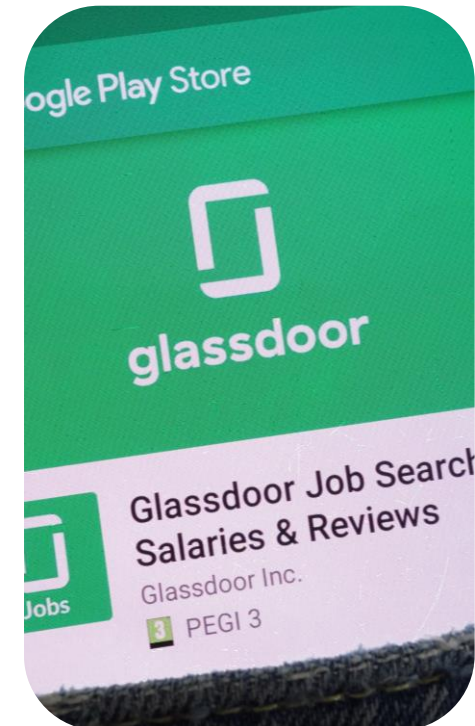

02

Virgin

03

Glassdoor

Cliffhanger video

Employee engagement tools

Why does organisational culture fail?

Inadequate
education

Lack of motivation

Ineffective change

Poor relationship management

Types of employee engagement

- Engaged employees
- Disengaged employees
- Actively disengaged employees

Ways to improve employee engagement

Start

One: Surveys matter

Two: Focus on the local and organisational level

Three: Select the correct managers/leaders

Four: Coach managers and create accountability

Five: Define goals and measurements

End

Employee engagement measuring tools

Pulse surveys

One-on-one sessions

Stay/exit interviews

eNPS

Leadership and engagement

Did you know?

- The number of employees who are disengaged at work has averaged 70% for nearly two decades.
- An employee who feels engaged and inspired is 125% more productive than the satisfied staffer.
- Recommended: survey your workforce a minimum of four times a year, along with other mission-critical KPIs and business metrics.

Strategy

'Your number one customers are your people. Look after employees first and then customers last.'

Ian Hutchinson
author of People Glue

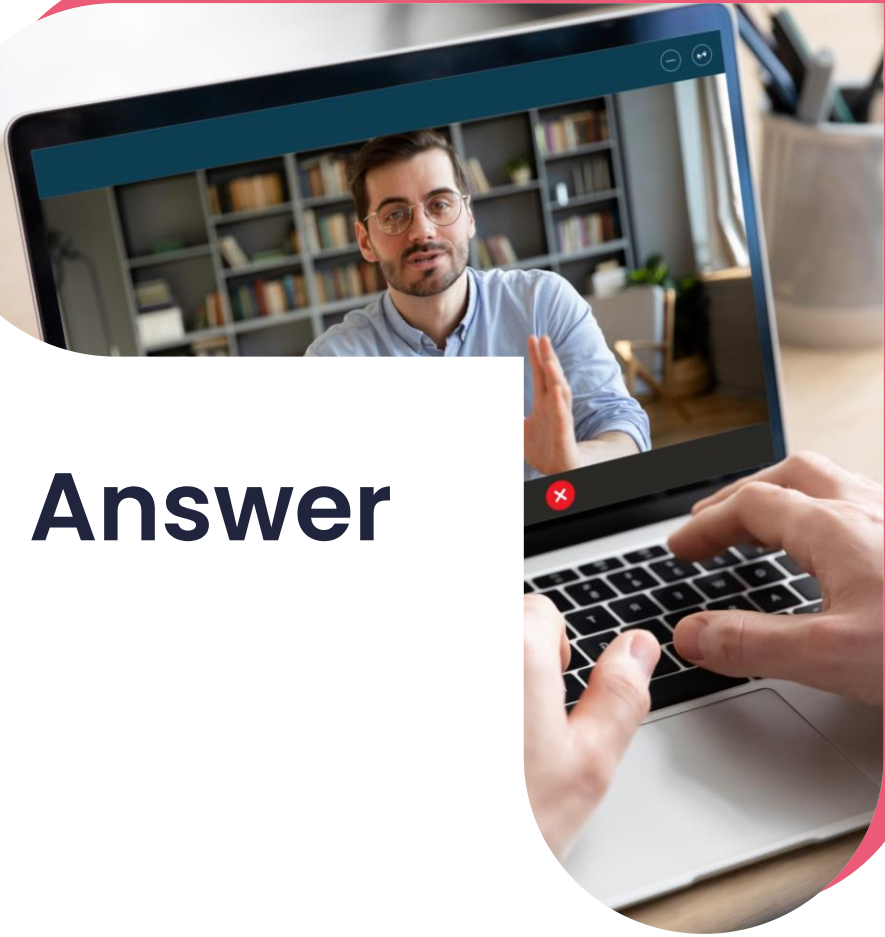

How leaders can engage employees

- Know your employees
- Provide tools for success
- Be transparent
- Allow growth

How leaders can engage employees

- Offer support
- Recognise work
- Encourage teamwork

A man with glasses and a beard is on a video call, visible on a laptop screen. He is gesturing with his hand. The laptop is on a desk, and a person's hands are visible typing on the keyboard.

Answer

What percentage employees said that they would work harder if they were better appreciated?

A. 40%

B. 69%

C. 97%

