

Diploma in

Leadership & Management

How to be Strategic

Explore the concept of strategic thinking <

Discuss strategic planning <

Discuss strategic time management <

Objectives

Strategic thinking

Strategic thinking explained

Strategic thinking is simply an intentional and rational thought process that focuses on the analysis of critical factors and variables that will influence the long-term success of a business, a team, or an individual.

The importance of strategic thinking

By incorporating everyday strategic thinking into your work and life routines, you will become more skilled at anticipating, forecasting, and capitalising on opportunities.

How to improve strategic thinking skills

- Time management
- Bias management
- Listen to experts
- Questions to ask
- Consequences

Strategic thinking characteristics

Seek perspective

Look to the future

Question everything

Know when to be patient
and impatient

Strategic planning

Strategic planning explained

Strategic planning is the art of formulating business strategies, implementing them, and evaluating their impact based on organisational objectives.

Strategic planning vs strategic thinking

- Once a year activity
- Looks at the year at hand
- Senior executives are in charge of strategic planning

Strategic planning process

Strategy
formulation

Strategy
implementation

Strategy
evaluation

STRATEGIC PLANNING

Coaching preparation steps

- Improved approaches
- Improved communication
- Empowers employees

Time management

Did you know?

20% of the average workday is spent on 'crucial' and 'important' things, while 80% of the average workday is spent on things that have 'little value' or 'no value' 10-12 minutes invested in planning your day will save at least 2 hours of wasted time and effort throughout the day – from 'Eat the Frog'

Explained

'Time management is the process of organizing and planning how to divide your time between specific activities. '

Top time management skills

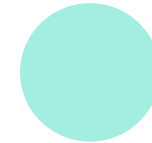

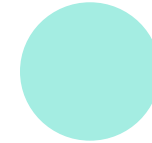

- Organisation
- Prioritising
- Goal-setting
- Planning
- Delegation
- Stress management

Steps to manage your time

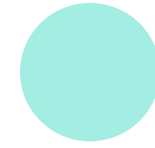

02. Find a space
to work

01. Write it down

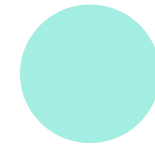

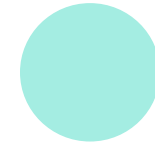

Steps to manage your time

04. Break up
your tasks

03. Know when to take
a break

5. Know when you're
the most productive

Steps to manage your time

07. Know your limitations

06. Become more efficient

End

