

Diploma in

Leadership and Management

Personal Branding

Explore the concept of personal branding <

Discuss personal branding tools <

Objectives

Personal branding explained

On average, employees have 10 times more followers than their company's social media accounts.

75% of HR departments are required to search job applicants online.

70% of U.S. recruiters and HR professionals have rejected candidates based on information they found online.

Did you know?

WHAT DO PEOPLE
THINK ABOUT
YOU?

Personal branding

Personal branding is the practice of marketing people and their careers as brands. It is an ongoing process of developing and maintaining a reputation and impression of an individual, group, or organisation.

Questions to ask yourself

- How will your brand make people feel?
- What makes you different?
- What are your core beliefs and values?
- What type of company culture do you want?
- What skillset(s) can you offer?
- What's your message?

Importance of personal branding

01

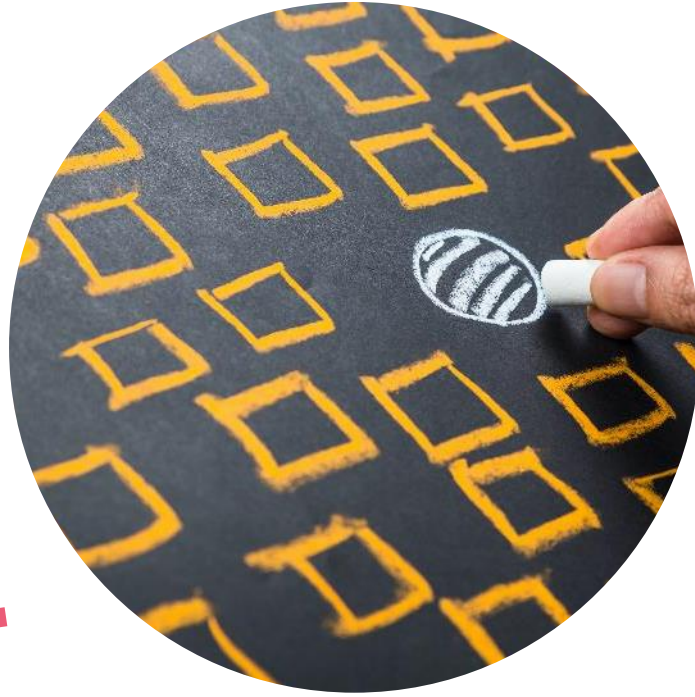

Creates trust

02

Develops value

Importance of personal branding

03

Differentiation

04

Authenticity

05

New opportunities

Examples of personal branding

Simon Sinek

Sinek isn't just inspiring, he's informative too. Everything he does is well-designed and easy to relate to, so that you can instantly see what this professional is all about.

Examples of personal branding

Richard Branson

He shows his personality in every aspect of his online presence, allowing the crucial elements of what makes him unique to shine through.

Examples of personal branding

Lolly Daskal

She is also has a robust social media presence, sharing her own material along with thought-provoking sayings and articles relating to all aspects of leadership.

Types of personal branding

01

The altruist

02

The careerist

03

The hipster

Types of personal branding

04

The boomerang

05

The connector

06

The selective

Personal branding tools

Quote

'Your personal brand is what people say about you when you are not in the room – remember that. And more importantly, let's discover why!'

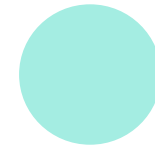

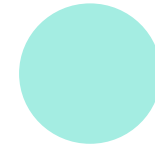

Chris Ducker

Personal branding tools

Two
Canva

One

Google alert

REPUTATION

Four

LinkedIn &
Twitter

Three

BrandYourself

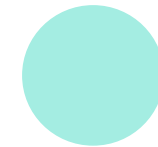

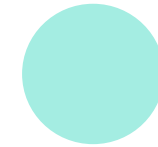

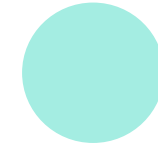

Five

Track Twitter
mentions

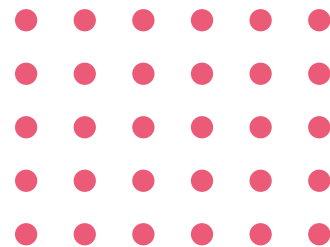

Seven
Google Analytics

Six
Comment alerts

End

Prioritise your values and passions

Define your traits

Develop your personal image

Define your target audience

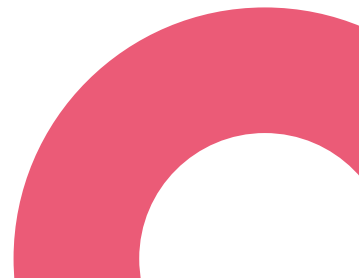

Build your online presence

Start blogging

Look at the experts

Manage your online reputation

- Track mentions
- Register your brand name
- Track reviews
- Create consistency
- Remove spam

