

Diploma in

Leadership and Management

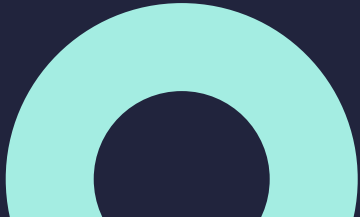

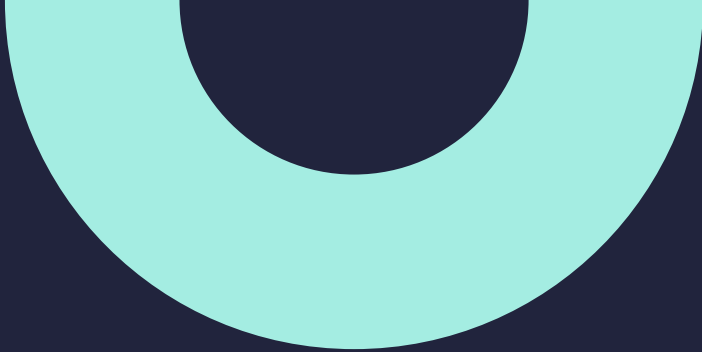

We're Going Virtual

Discuss the growing importance of virtual meetings ◀

Explore running virtual meetings in practice ◀

Objectives

Virtual meetings

Virtual meetings

In a recent survey, more than half of respondents said they worked remotely. Another 28 percent worked partially remotely, partially on-site. Marketing and PR, design, engineering, sales and customer support jobs are among the most popular choices for remote workers.

Virtual events

A virtual meeting can be as basic or as complex as you need it to be. Example: you're planning to launch a new product or service. Brainstorm virtual event ideas as part of your marketing strategy. Use online meeting tools to host a webinar or a live Q&A session to answer customers' questions and share insights.

Types of virtual meetings

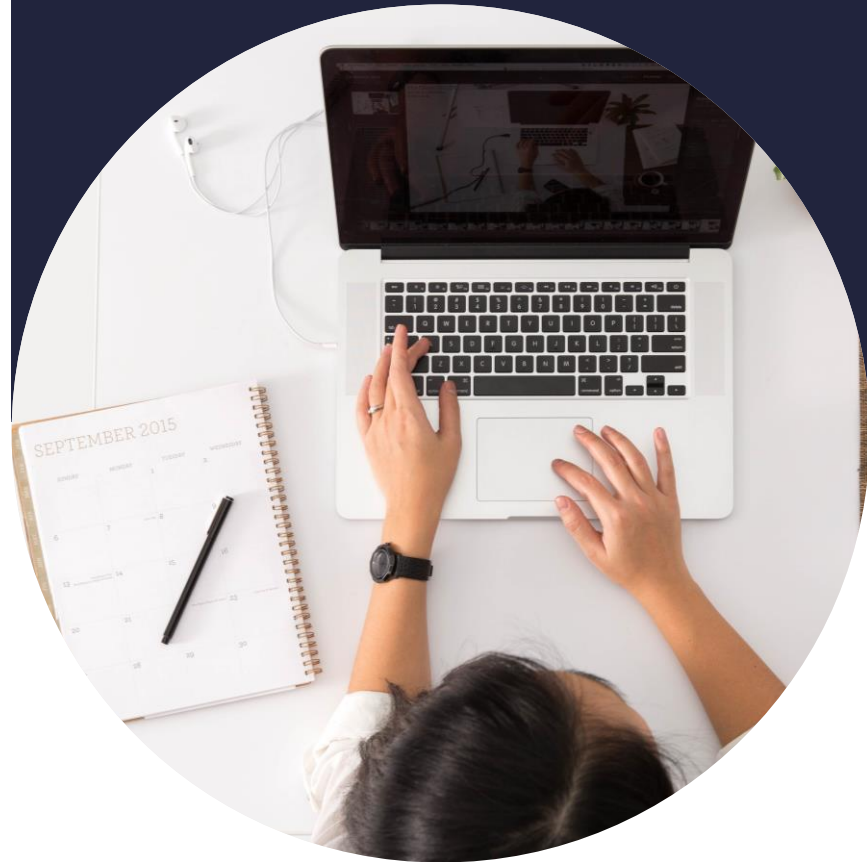

Teleconferencing

Video conferencing

Web conferencing

Benefits of virtual meetings

- No travel cost
- Inexpensive
- Available anywhere
- Brings people together
- Productivity is not impacted

Pitfalls of virtual meetings

- Accommodating all
- Technical issues
- Lead time
- Lack of body language
- Distractions

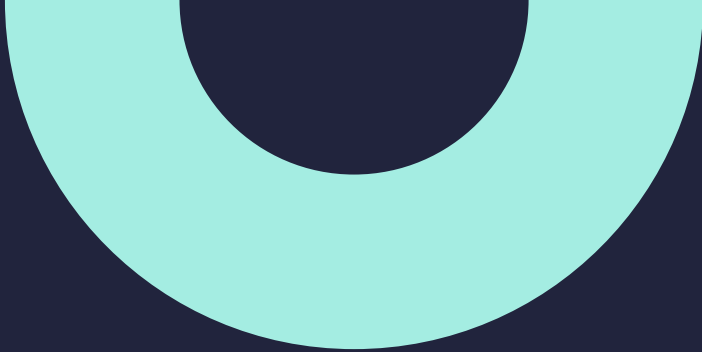

Virtual meeting etiquette

- Avoid typing
- Dress the part
- Check your surroundings
- Mute
- Speak up
- Avoid eating

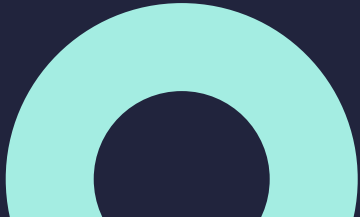

Zoom fatigue

So many people are reporting similar experiences that it's earned its own slang term 'Zoom fatigue' though this exhaustion also applies if you're using Google Hangouts, Skype, FaceTime, or any other video-calling interface.

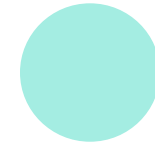

Virtual meetings in practice

Why are online meetings so different?

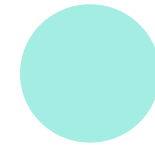

Two

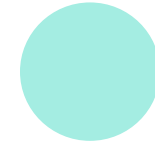

Family impact

One

Non-verbal communication

Three

Lack of socialisation

Four

Looking at yourself

Five

Listening or frozen?

End

How to improve your virtual meetings

- Select the correct virtual meeting software
- Establish rules
- Assign team facilitators
- Level the playing field

How to improve your virtual meetings

- Assign roles
- Navigate technical issues
- Focus on eye contact
- Virtual icebreaker or watercooler talk

Top meeting tips

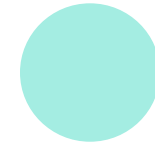

- Create a line
- Virtual voting and feedback
- Continuous improvement
- No-one should be left out
- Send meeting notes

Fun virtual meeting ice breakers

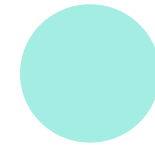

Two

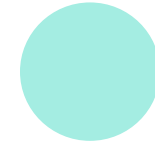

Quick questions

One

Two truths and a lie

Three

Take a picture

Four

Choose your favourite

Five

Emoji time

End

Types of virtual meetings

IdeaFlip

Noteapp

Bloomfire