

Diploma in
Leadership and Management

Strategic Awareness

Explore the concept of strategic awareness <

Discuss strength based leadership <

Objectives

Strategic awareness

Leaders who utilise strategic awareness are unaffected by limiting belief systems.

Benefits of strategic awareness

- Complex worlds
- See the bigger picture
- See your role
- Conscious choices

Strategic awareness attributes

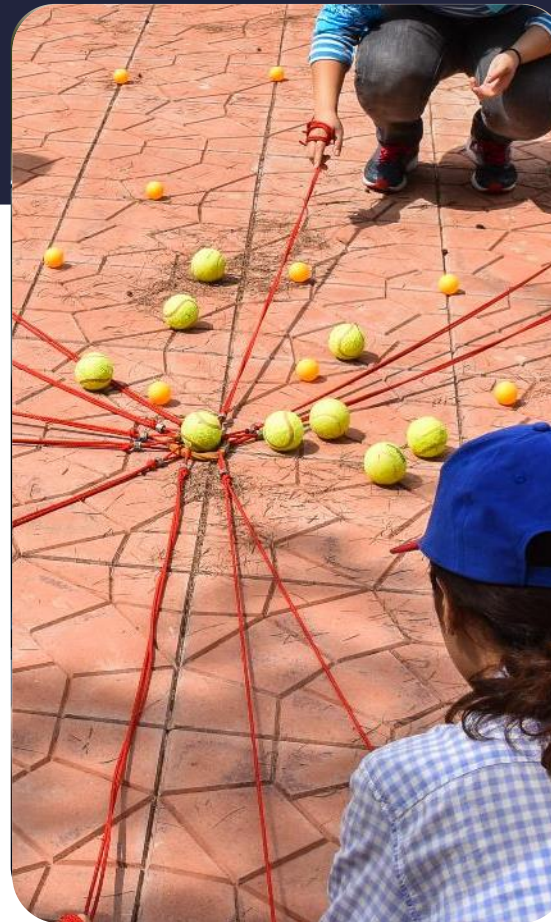

01

Consume information

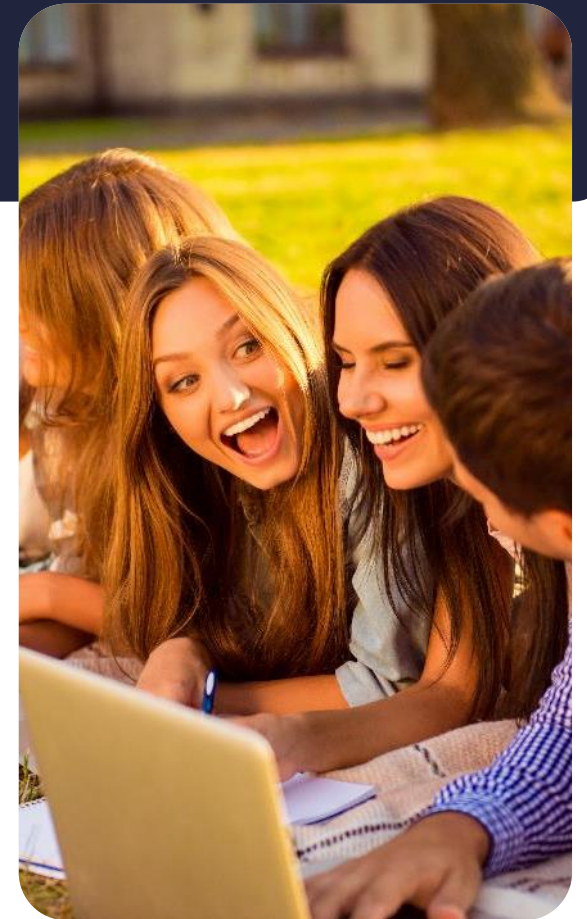

02

Listen to everything

03

Analogies between situations

How to become more strategically aware

- Look for anomalies
- Be curious
- Look at the global environment
- Understand related industries
- Monitor trends
- Take risks

Strategic awareness forecasting

- Hindsight
- Insight
- Foresight

Develop hindsight

- Review past actions
- Review you day
- Keep a journal

Develop foresight

- Assess
- Understand consequences
- Be proactive

Develop insight

- Be inquisitive
- Look for trend
- Empowering questions

Foster innovation

- 3 min activity to foster innovation in your team
- Material: paper
- Participants: unlimited

Strength based leadership

Strength based leadership

Strengths based leadership is the ability to identify and make the best use of your own and your team members' strengths.

Importance of strengths based leadership

What's more, a strengths based approach encourages you to hire people based on their individual abilities and aptitudes, not just because their skills and experience are similar to yours.

SWOT recap

- Strengths
- Weaknesses
- Opportunities
- Threats

