

Diploma in Leadership & Management

Competencies and Leadership

Understand management and leadership competencies? <

Discuss how managers and leaders apply key competencies <

Discuss key leadership styles managers and leader should know <

Objectives

What are management and leadership competencies?

What percentage of executives said competencies are important for the overall success of their business units?

A

50%

B

77%

C

93%

What is the difference between competencies and skills?

Skills

Skills are learned activities or tasks that can be obtained with experience and training.

Competencies

Competencies are a collection of skills, knowledge and abilities.

Competencies vs skills

Competencies

- Staff development
- Communication
- Problem solving
- Delegating

Skills

- Using your computer
- Typing a formal letter
- Using MS Excel effectively
- Fixing the hardware of your computer

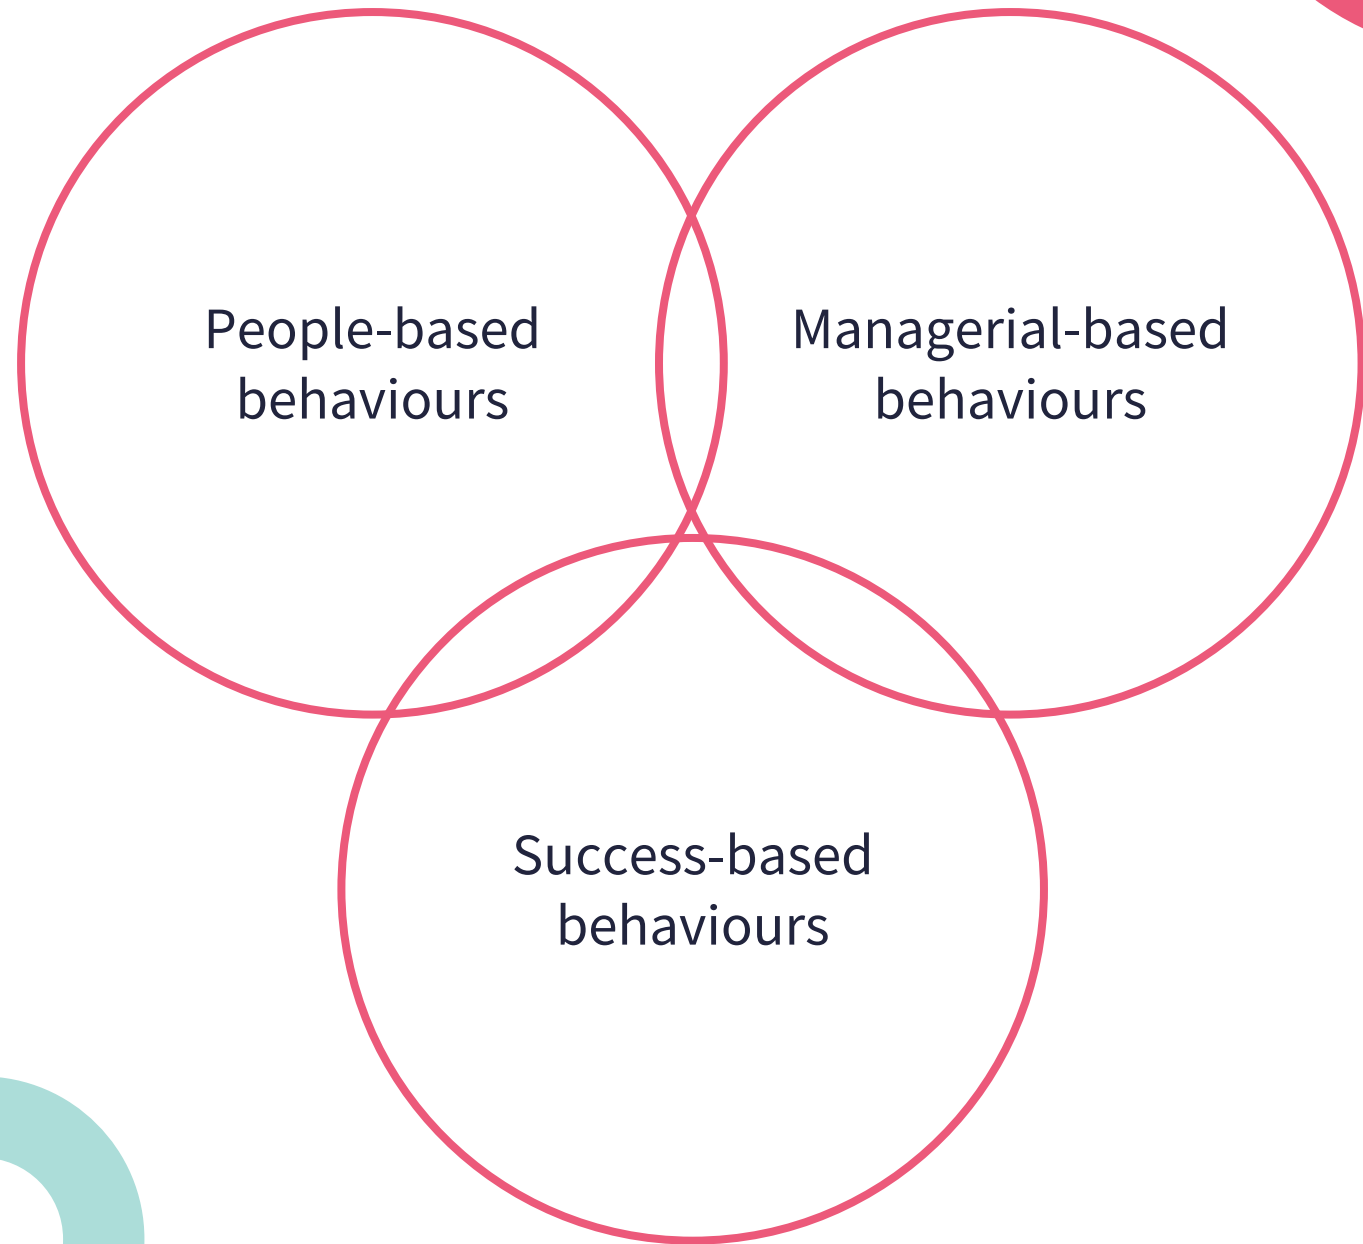

What are behavioural competencies?

Behavioural competencies help define an individual's behavioural strengths that could predict future successes in the workplace.

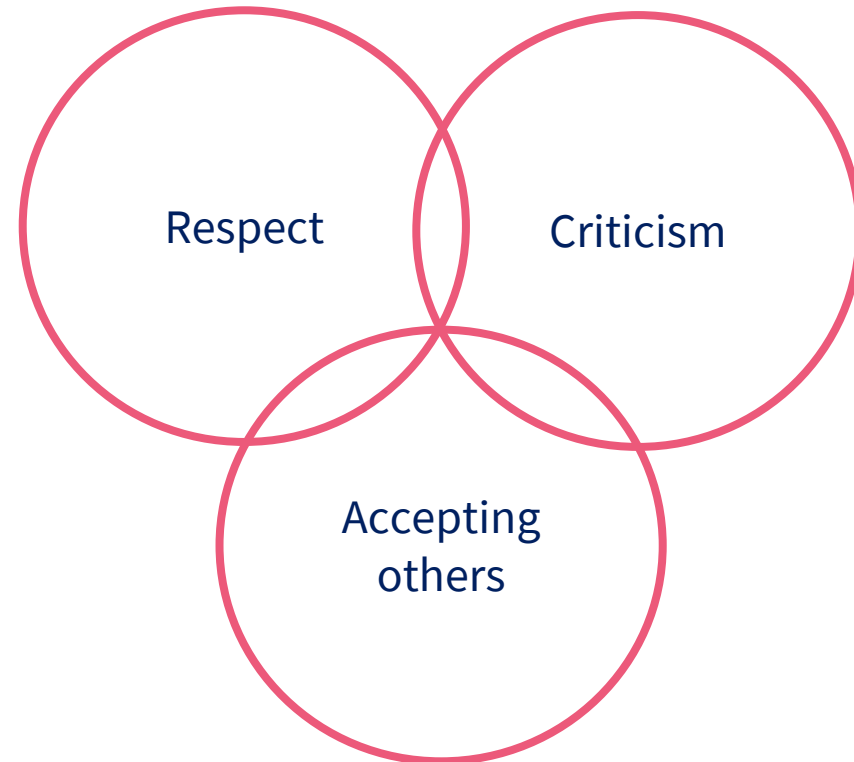

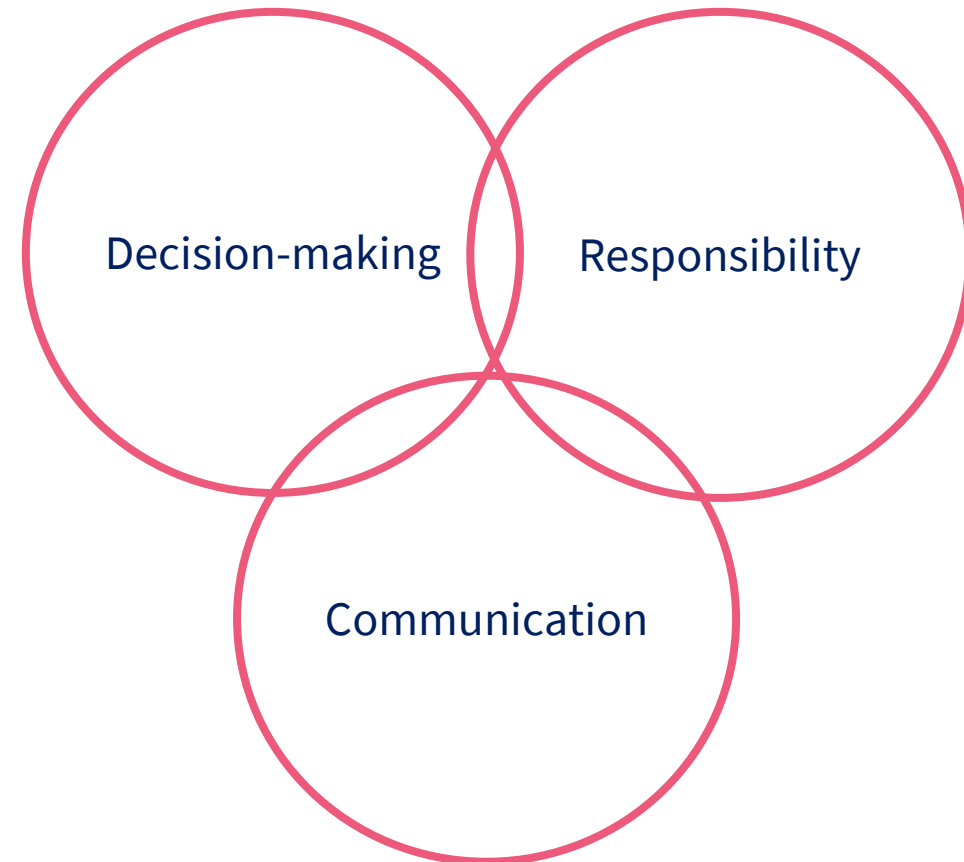

Categories of behavioural competencies

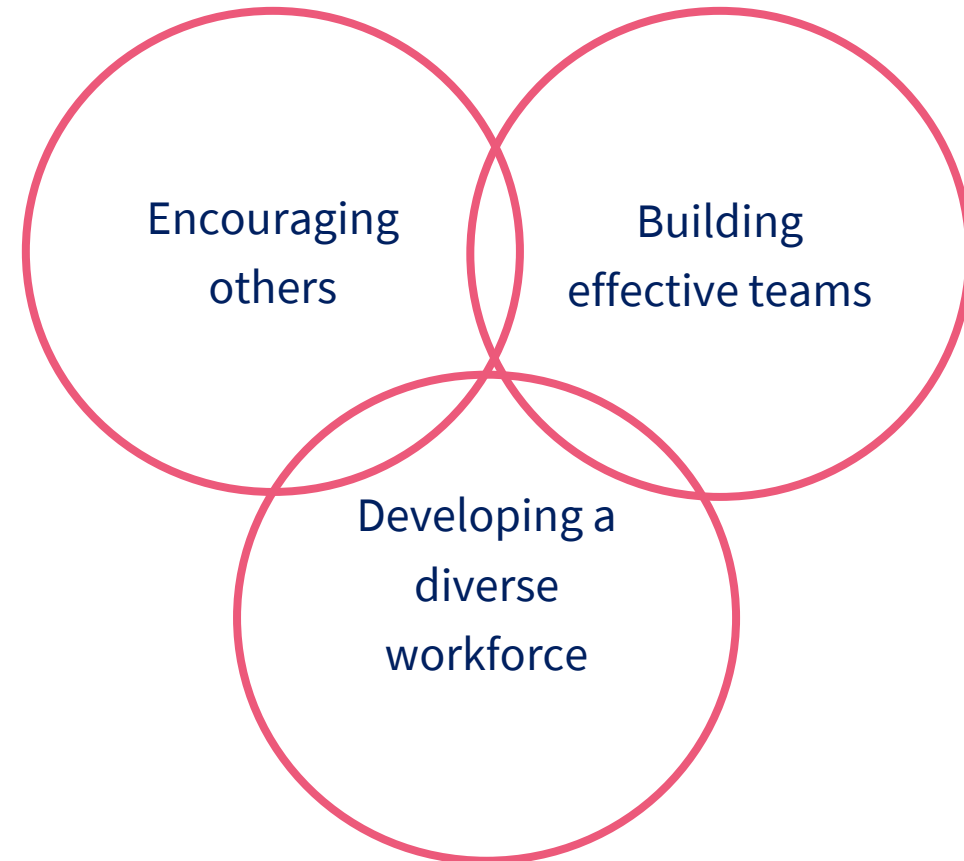

Categories of behavioural competencies

Categories of behavioural competencies

Categories of behavioural competencies

Leadership and management competencies

What percentage of executives said competencies are important for the overall success of their business units?

A — 50%

B — 77%

C — 93%

Core leadership/management competencies to know

Leading yourself

Leading others

Leading the organisation

Leading yourself

- Demonstrating ethics and integrity.
- Increasing your capacity to learn.
- Increasing self-awareness.
- Developing adaptability.

Leading others

- Communicating effectively.
- Developing others.
- Building and maintaining relationships.
- Managing effective teams and work groups.

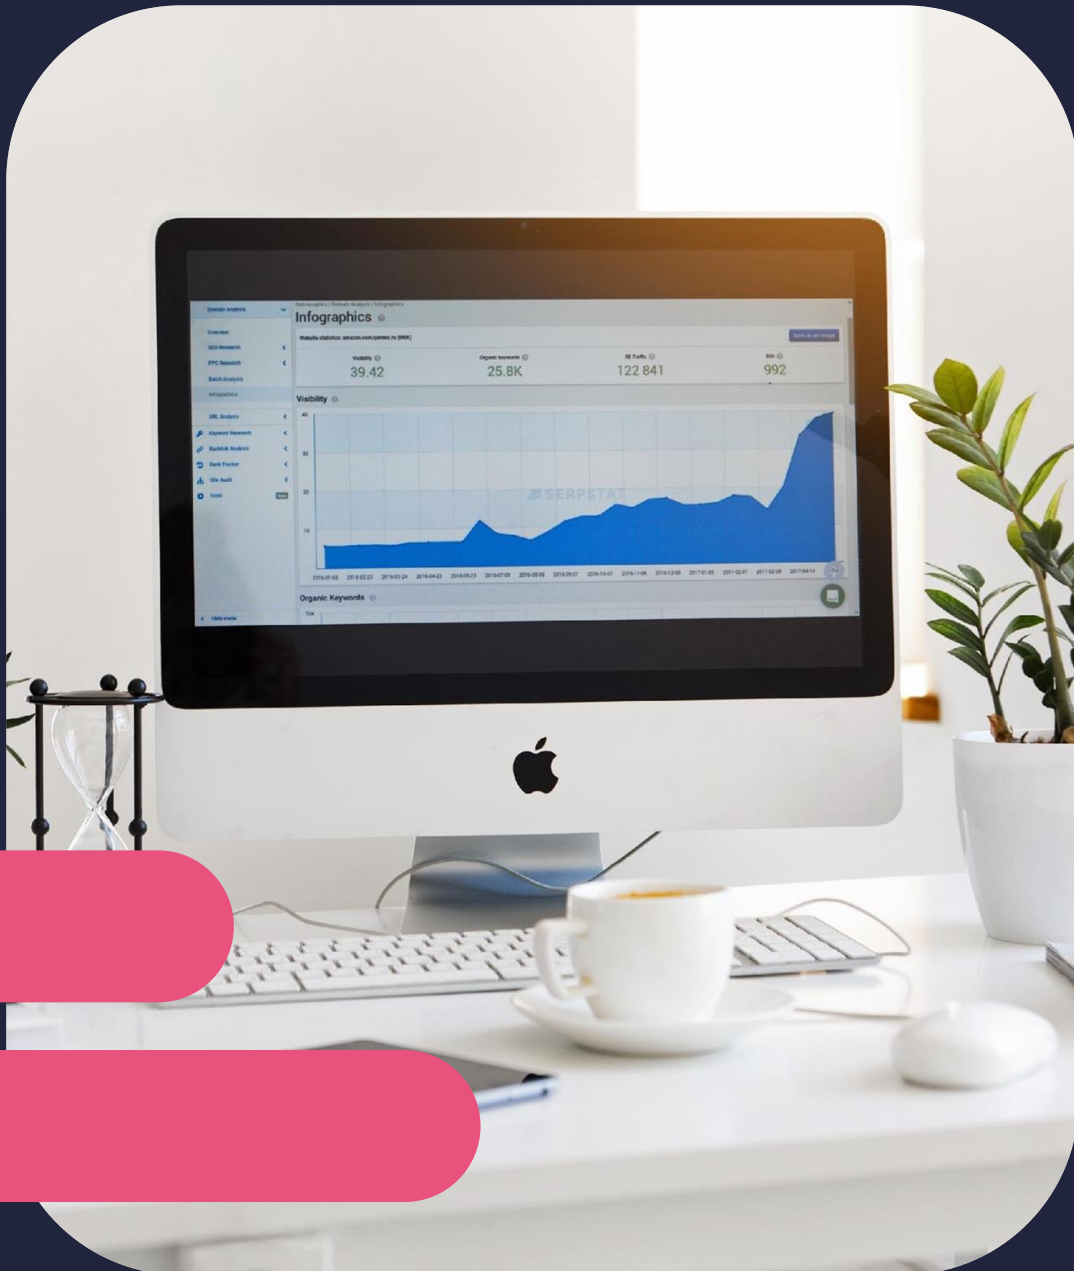

Leading the organisation

- Managing change.
- Solving problems and making decisions.
- Setting vision and strategy.
- Enhancing business skills and knowledge.

How can managers and leaders apply these key competencies?

Basic leadership and management competencies applied

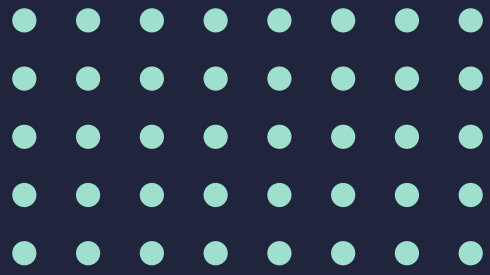

1.
Setting directions and goals

2.
Giving feedback

3.
Recognising performance

Be clear with what you're asking.

Use the SMART system.

Verify if employees understand.

1. Setting directions and goals

Embrace a growth mindset

'I don't divide the world into weak and strong or successes and failures. I divide the world into learners and non-learners.'

- Benjamin Barbar

Understand the difference between a growth and a fixed mindset

Growth mindset

I take feedback and improve.

Fixed mindset

I get upset when I receive feedback and criticism.

2. Giving feedback

The purpose of feedback is to improve performance.

Positives must outweigh the negatives.

Managers must give regular feedback.

Focus on the behaviour not the individual.

Leadership and management

The Harvard Business Review reported that 82% of employees did not feel recognised by their companies.

3. How to communicate recognition of performance

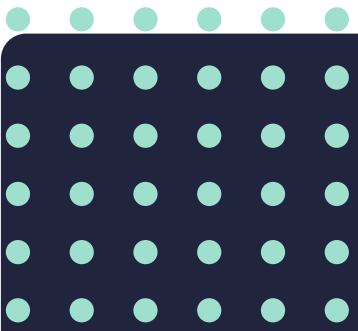

Competencies applied

- Inspire.
- It's so simple.
- Make it fun.
- Make is transparent.

Key leadership styles all managers and leaders should be aware of

Charismatic/inspirational/transformational leader

Democratic/participative leader

Autonomous/autocratic leader

Key leadership styles

'One of the most difficult things is not to change society — but to change yourself.'

Charismatic/ inspirational/ transformation leader

- Seeks to inspire.
- Leader of change.
- Share the vision.
- Drives innovation.

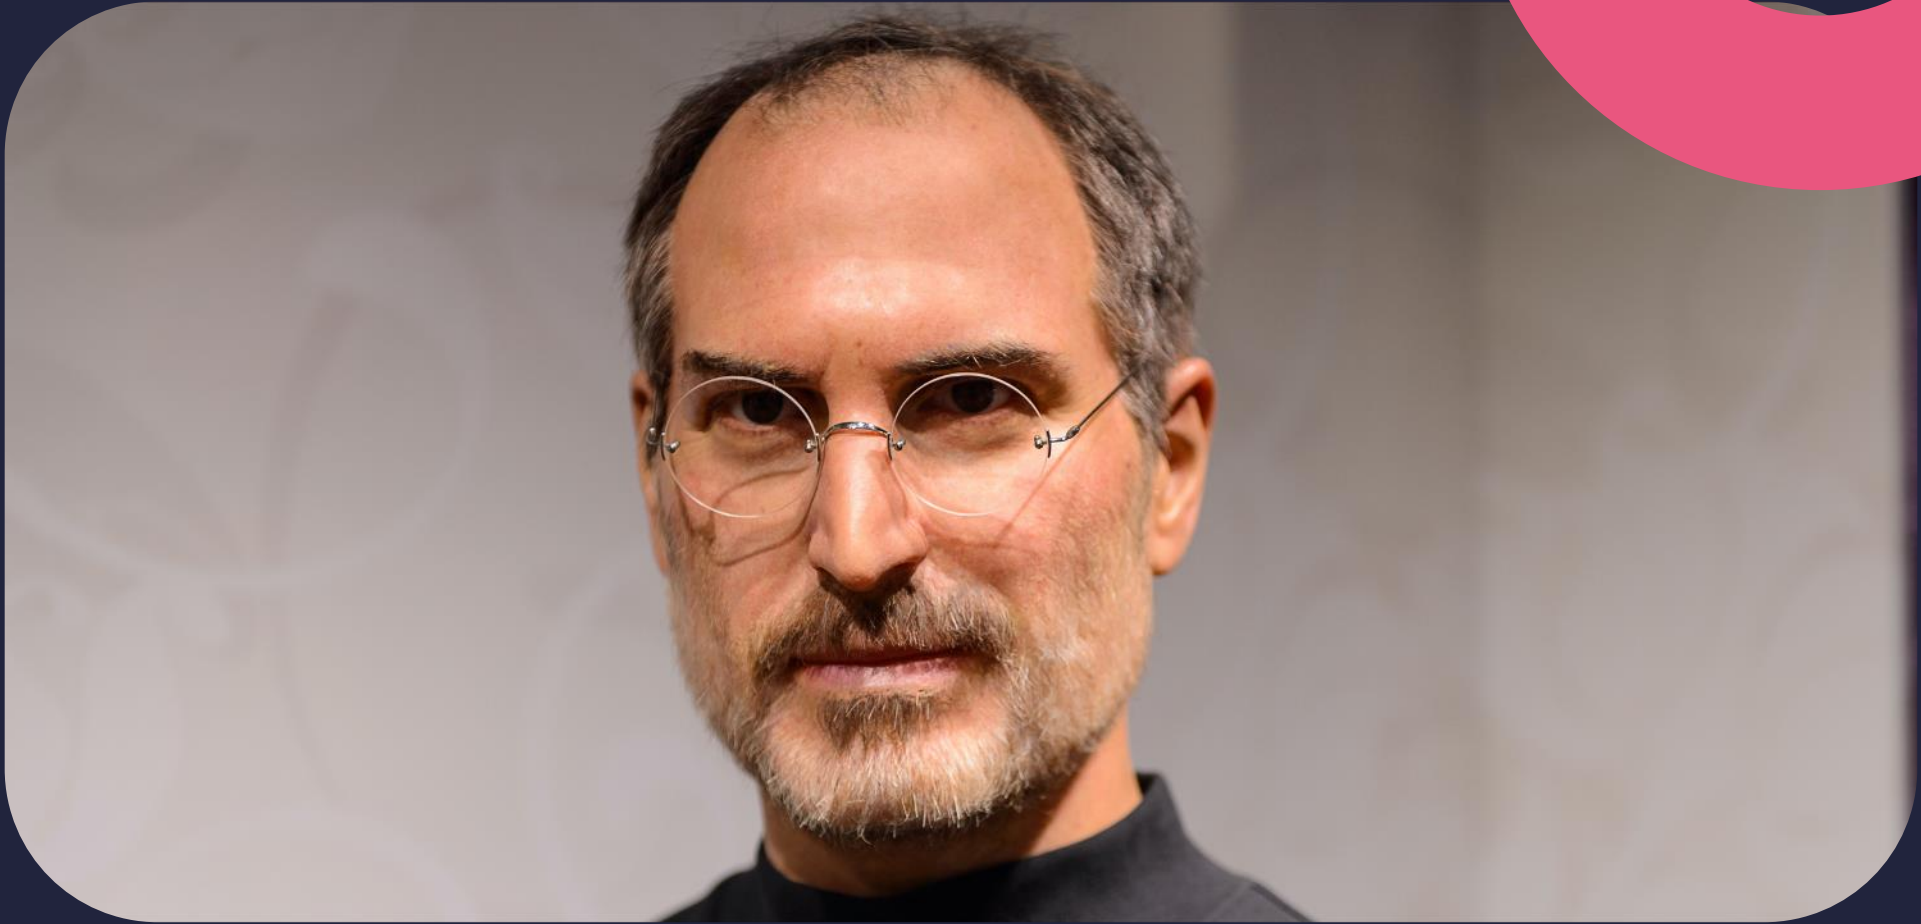

'If you're walking down the right path and you're willing to keep walking, eventually you'll make progress'

Democratic /participative leader

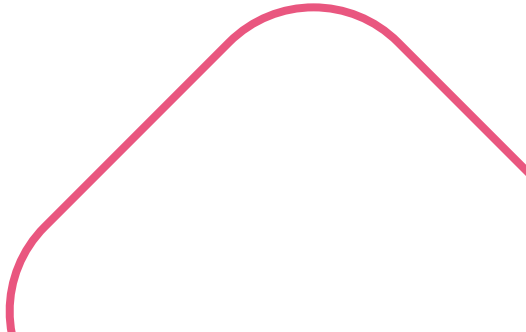

- Empowerment.
- Inclusion is key.
- Inexperience harms.
- The leader has the final say.

'I do not adopt softness towards others because I want to make them better.'

Autocratic leader

- Unpopular.
 - Error-free.
 - All the power.
 - Trust.
-
- A decorative pink wavy line graphic located in the bottom-right corner of the slide.

Determine your leadership style

