

Diploma in Leadership & Management

Why Leadership Makes a Difference

Understand why leadership makes a difference <

Discuss the dimensions of leadership <

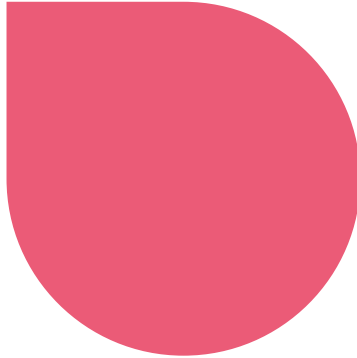

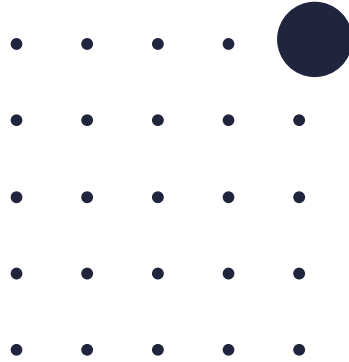

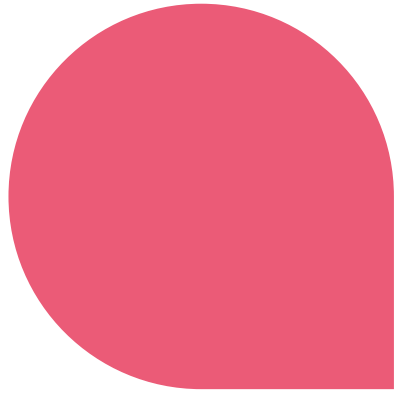

Learn how to lead with resolve and humility <

Objectives

Why leadership makes a difference

What percentage of businesses say it is important to develop leaders at all levels?

The leadership framework explained

The leadership framework is a set of principles defining what leaders must know and must do.

The framework clearly defines the requirements for leadership and sets practical and consistent standards expected of managers.

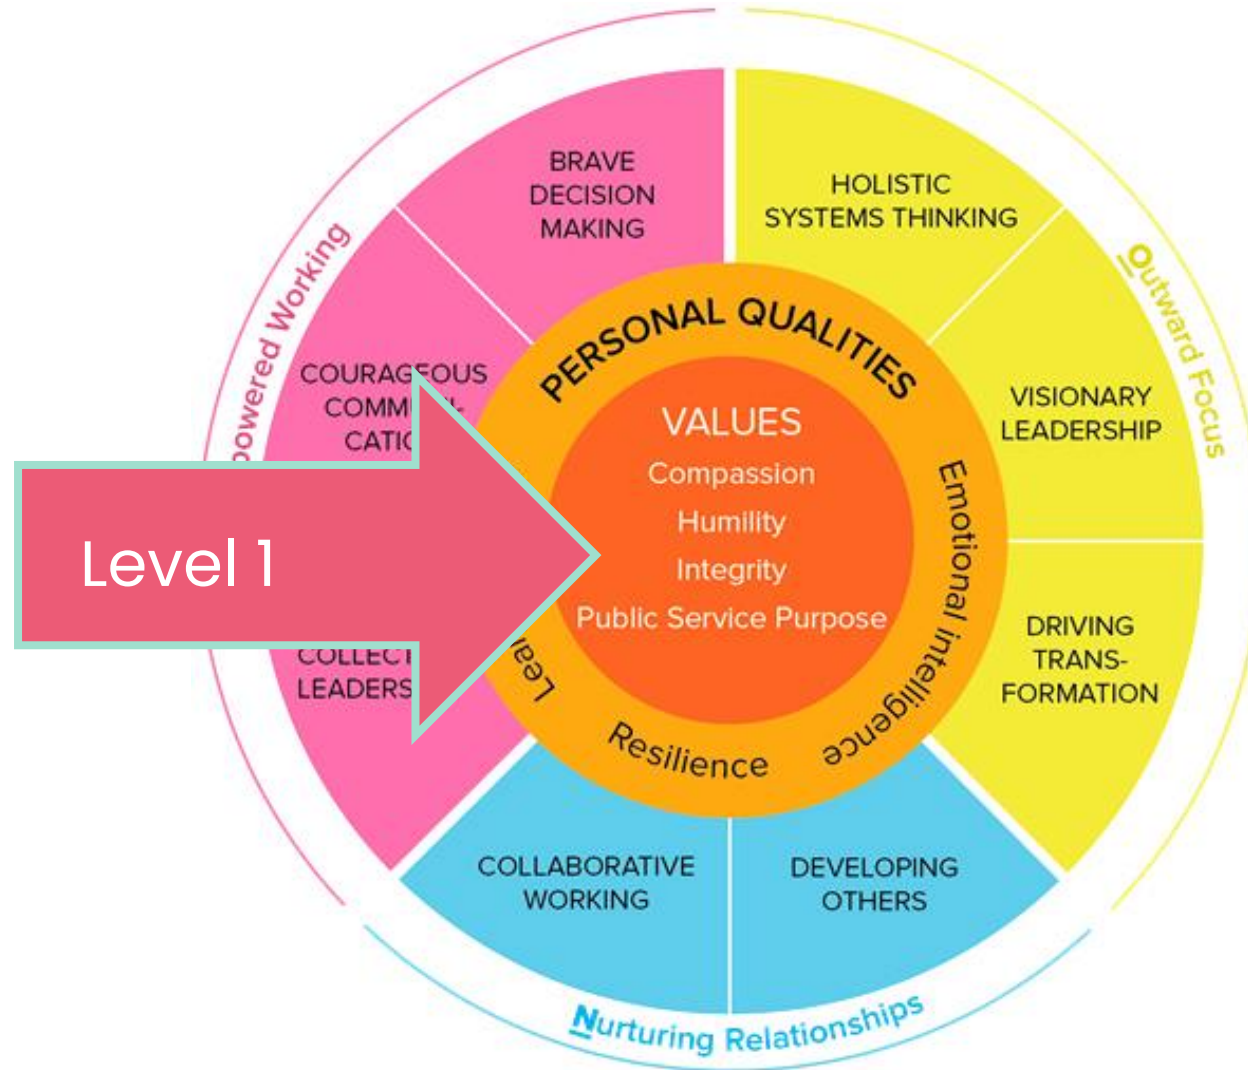

Leadership framework example

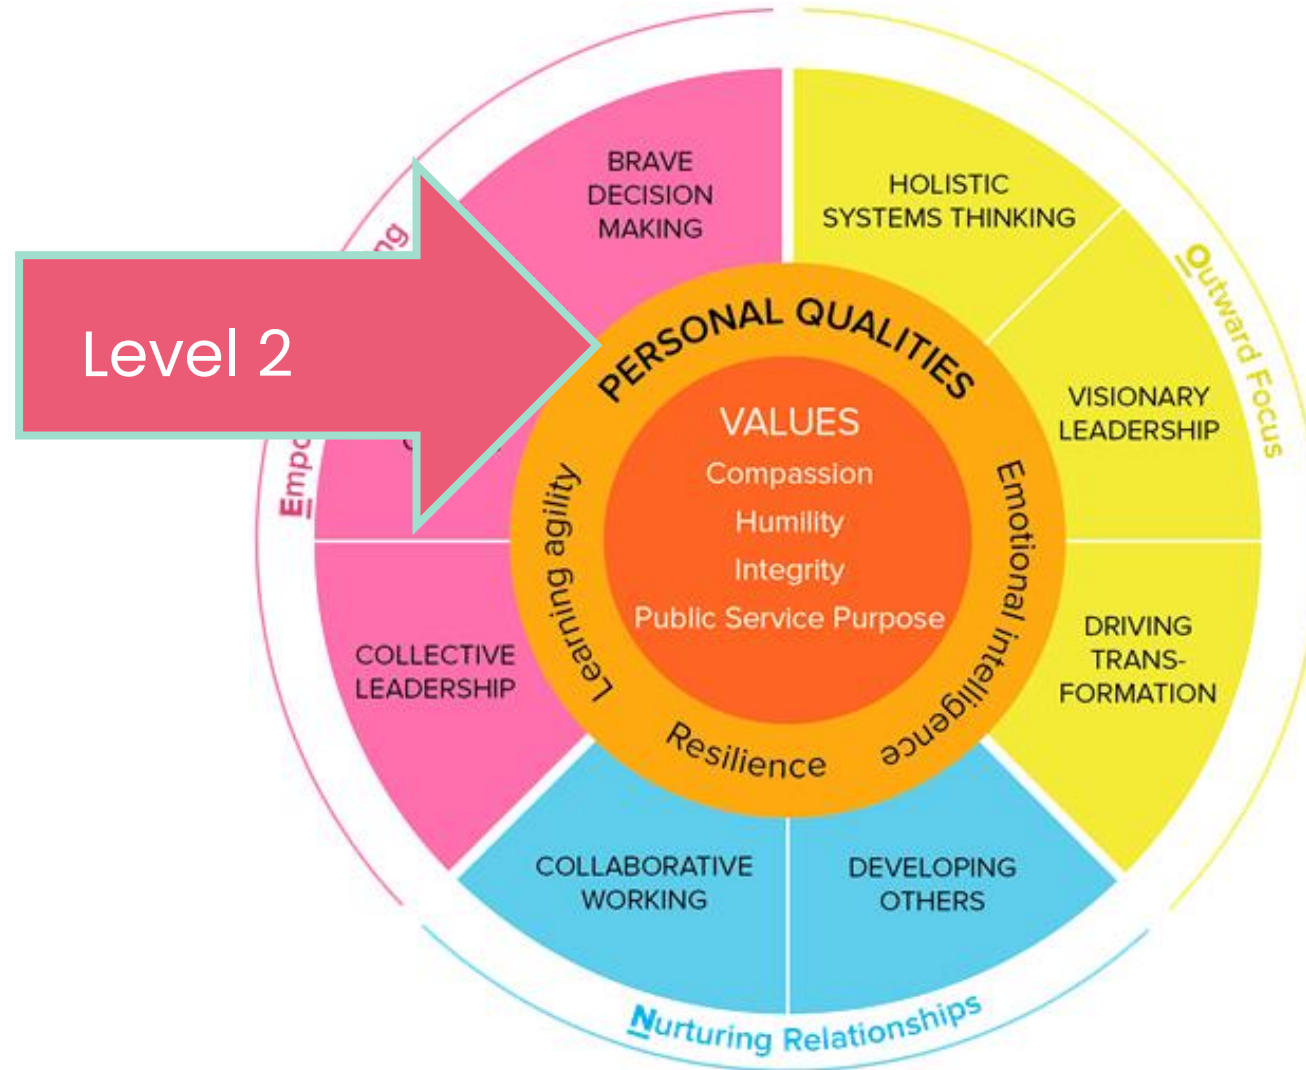

Leadership framework example

Leadership framework example

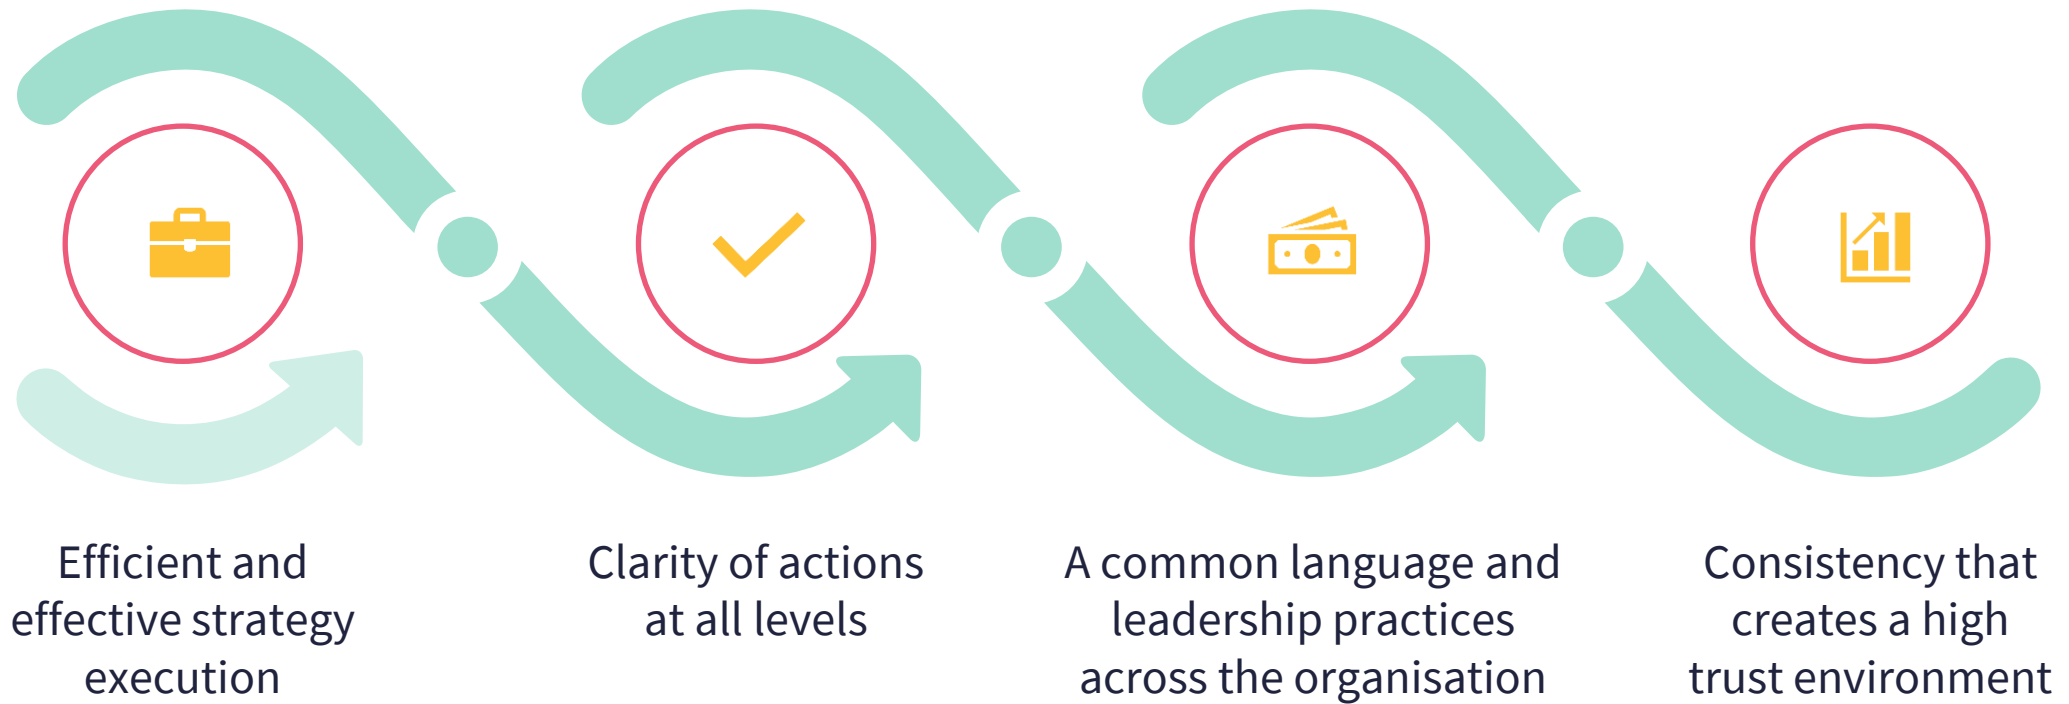

Leadership framework example

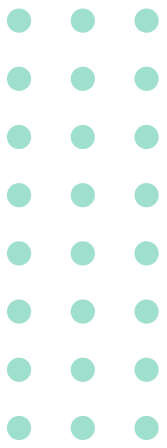

Leadership framework example

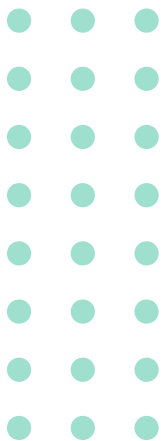

Benefits of a leadership framework

How to create a leadership framework

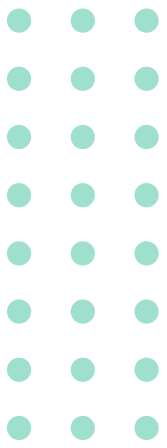

LEVELS	FIRST-LEVEL LEADERSHIP	MID-LEVEL LEADERSHIP	EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP
--------	------------------------	----------------------	----------------------

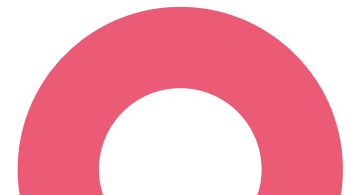

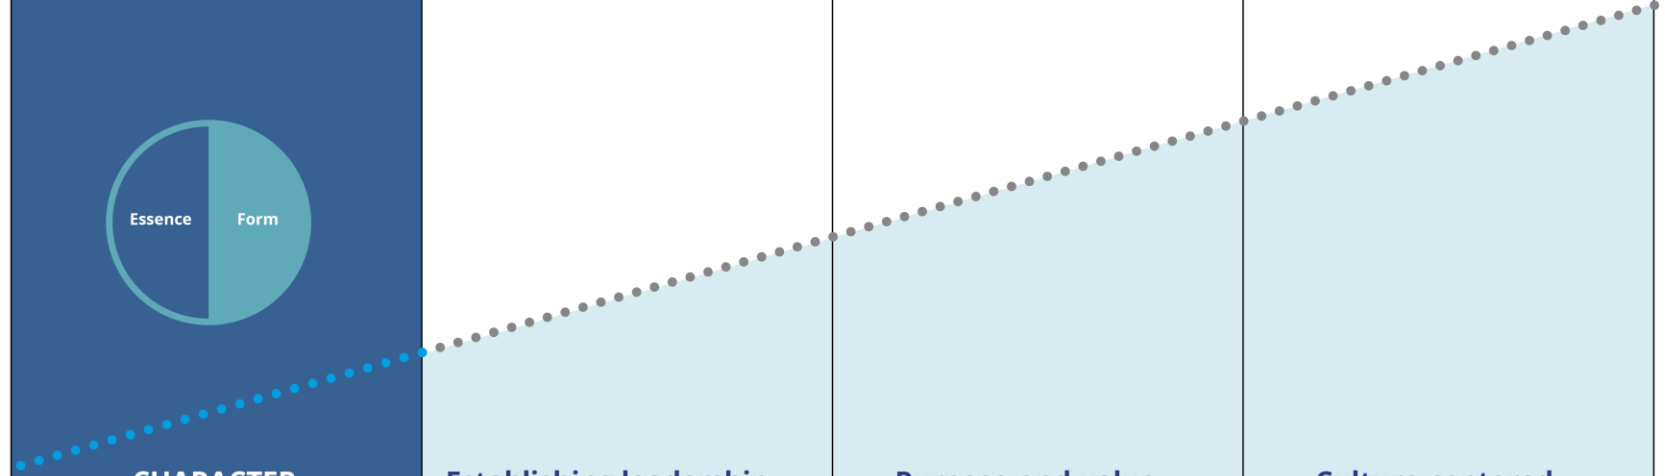

How to create a leadership framework

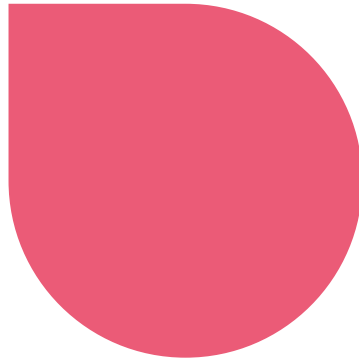

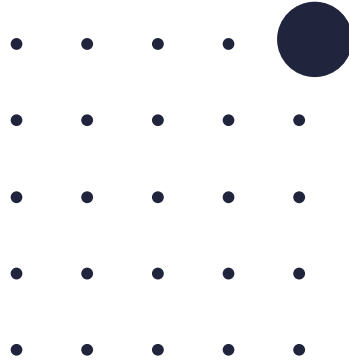

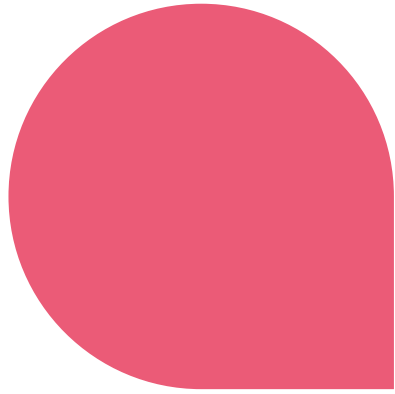

LEVELS	FIRST-LEVEL LEADERSHIP	MID-LEVEL LEADERSHIP	EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP
FOCUS	Getting work done through people	Getting work done with people in a way that builds their ability to do it themselves	Ensuring systems and processes to sustain performance

How to create a leadership framework

LEVELS	FIRST-LEVEL LEADERSHIP	MID-LEVEL LEADERSHIP	EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP
FOCUS	Getting work done through people	Getting work done with people in a way that builds their ability to do it themselves	Ensuring systems and processes to sustain performance
SKILLS (FORM)	Survival skills	Growth skills	Strategic skills
CHARACTER (ESSENCE)	Establishing leadership credibility	Purpose-and-value-centered leadership	Culture-centered leadership

Only 22% of employees strongly agree that their leaders have a clear direction for their organisation.

The importance of leadership

- People management.
- Inspiration.
- Vision.
- Change management.

What is strategic vs operations leadership

Strategic	Operations
Defining the overall vision and mission of an organisation.	Ensuring that organisational processes are effectively carried out on a day-to-day basis.
Developing strategies, systems and structures to achieve the vision and mission.	Monitoring performance.
Creating both technical and social systems.	Ensuring that employees understand what is to be done and are provided with the authority, knowledge and skills to do it.

Why do leaders need to stay prepared?

What happens when leaders are not prepared?

- They overreact when faced with a challenge.
- They lose influence over the team.
- They lose followers.
- They tend to focus more on their own reaction than that of their teams.

Why do leaders need to stay prepared?

What happens when leaders are prepared?

- They respond appropriately.
- They support their teams.
- There is less resistance to change.
- It minimises conflict.

Top 4 ways to stay prepared

Slow down

Take time to think strategically

Focus on your responses

Always follow up

Transactional and transformational leadership

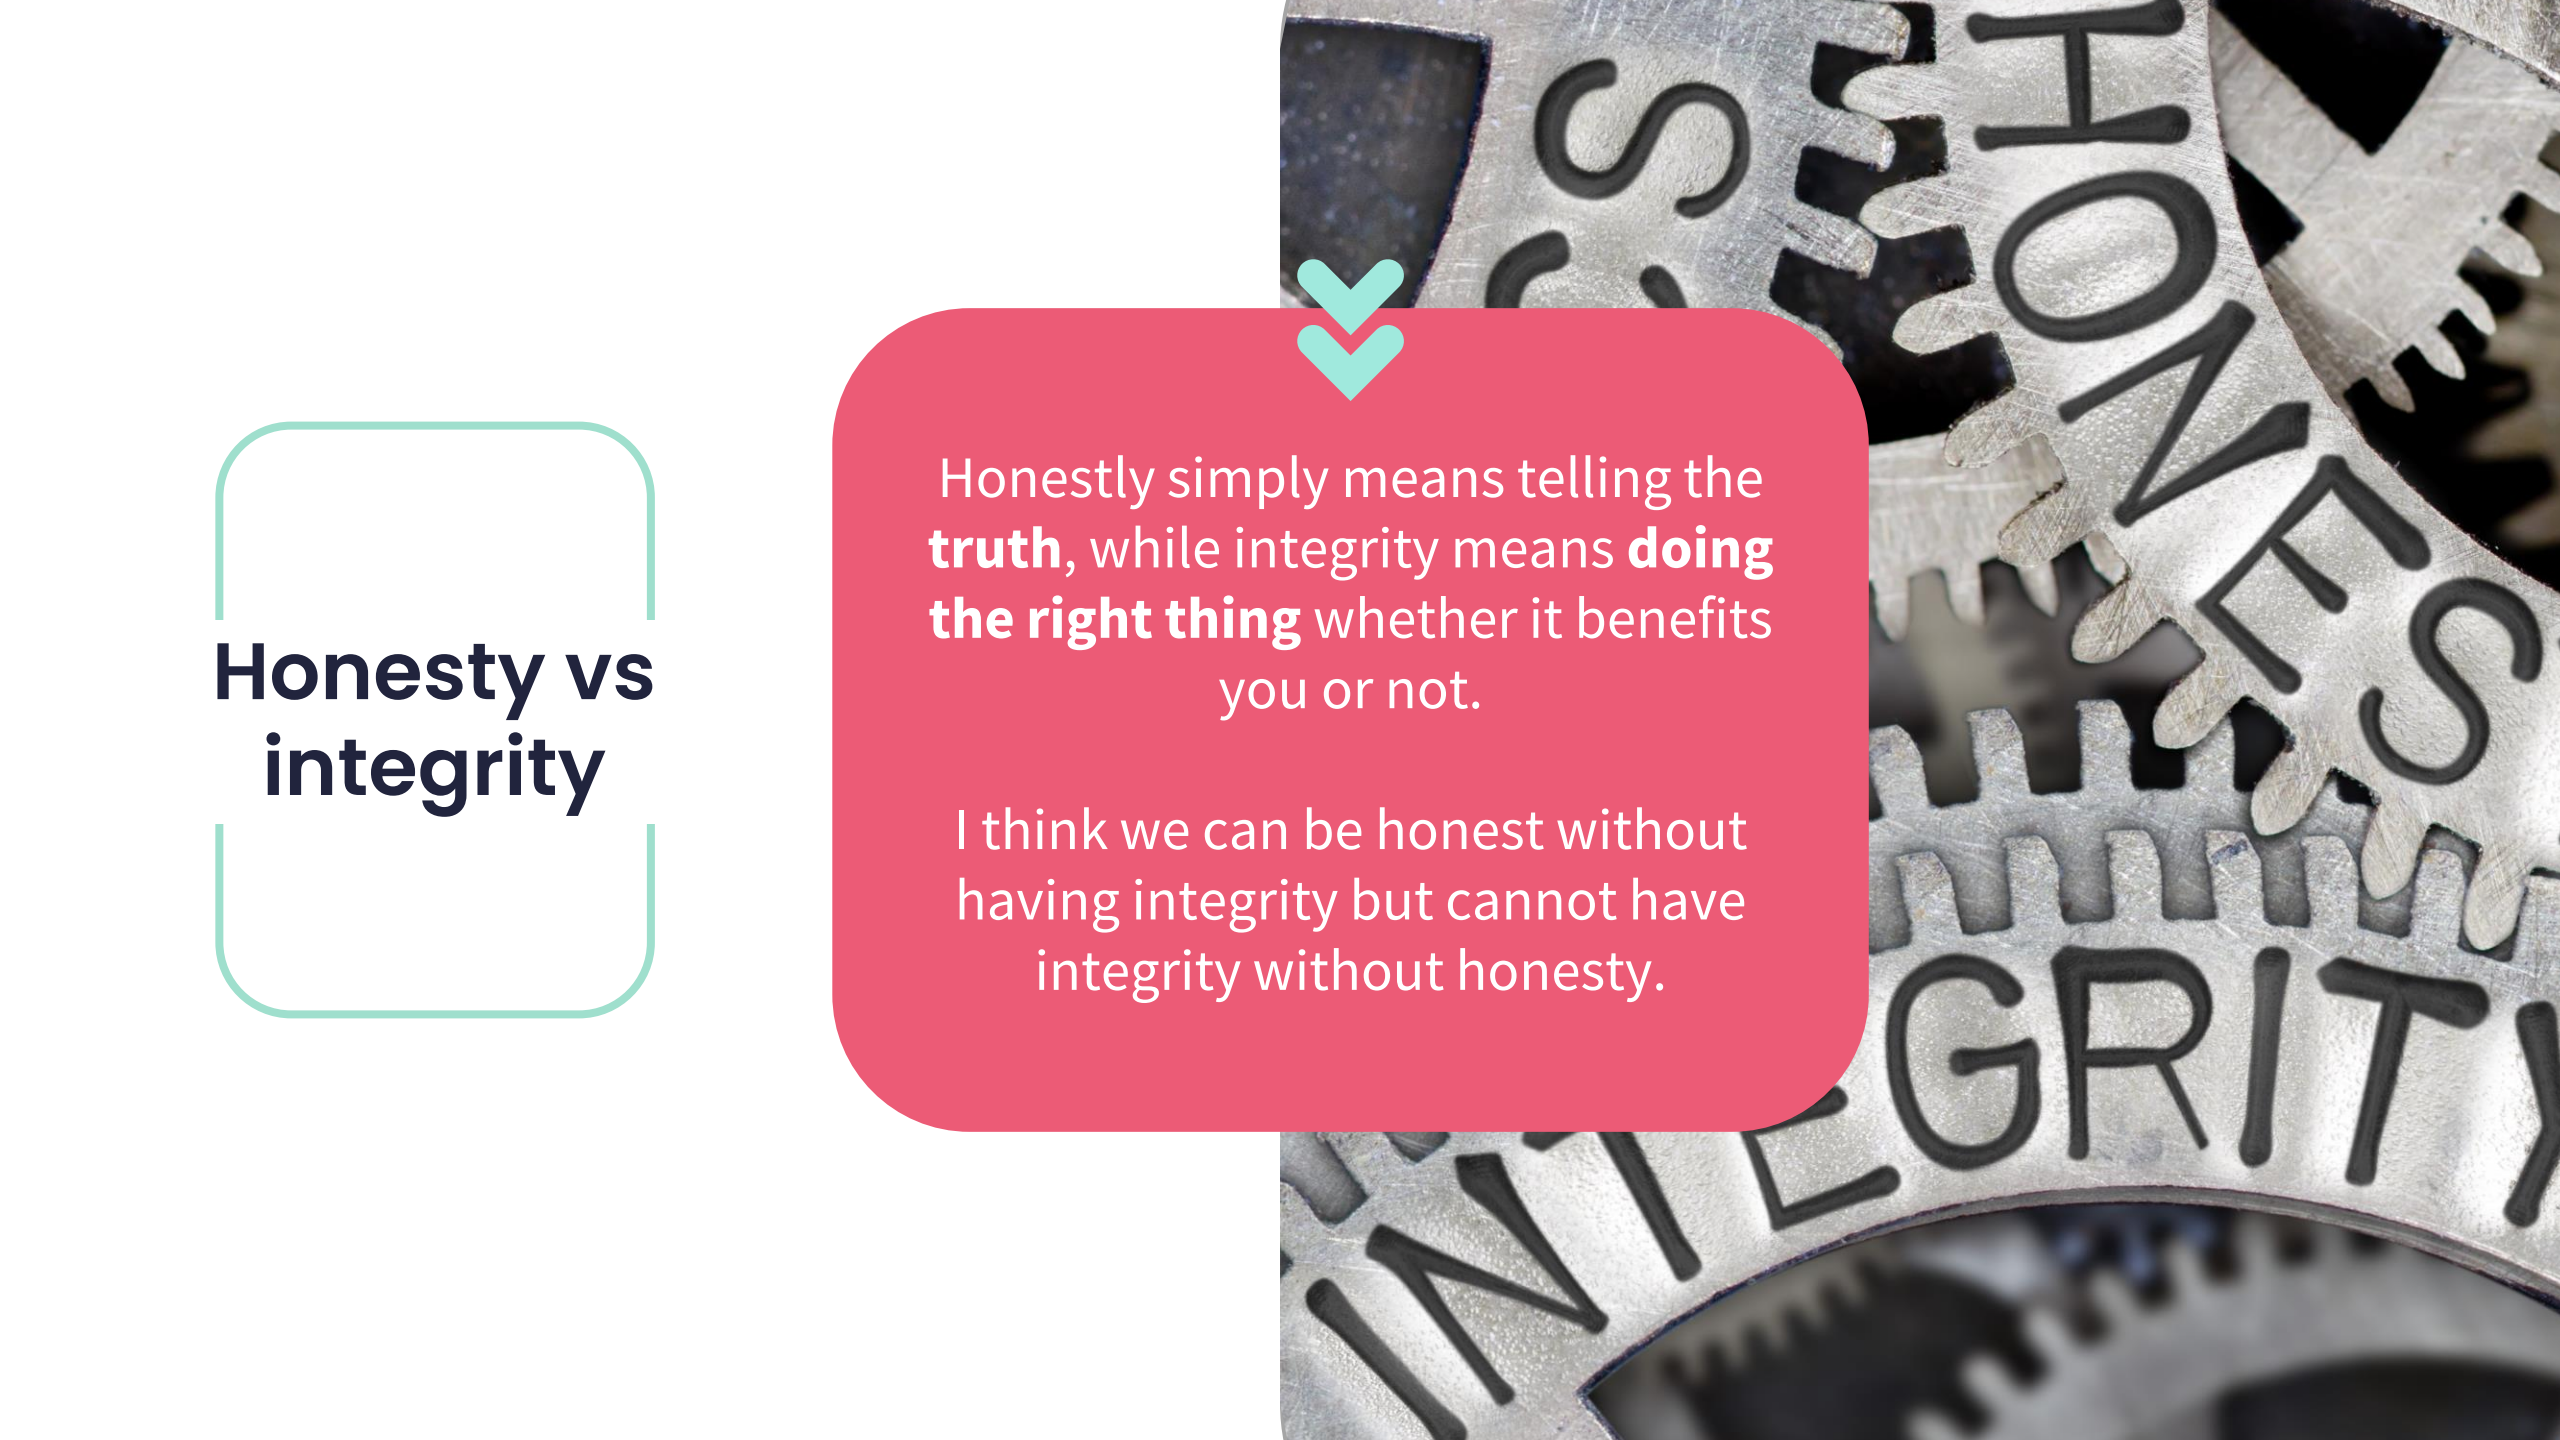

Dimensions of leadership

58% of employees say
they trust strangers
more than their boss.

Honesty vs integrity

Honestly simply means telling the truth, while integrity means doing the right thing whether it benefits you or not.

I think we can be honest without having integrity but cannot have integrity without honesty.

Examples of integrity

Understand the management function

Sarah is the CEO of a company impacted by economic difficulty. She is known for telling the good, the bad and the ugly. She has informed the employees that cut backs are coming and that the focus of the company is on revenue generation.

Examples of integrity

Understand the management function

Result

Sarah used transparency and integrity to gain the trust and respect of the employees. The employees felt looped in. The company now shares the vision to focus on revenue generation to avoid cut backs.

How to develop integrity

Show
vulnerability

How do
others view
you?

Honesty

Self audit and accountability

How to maintain integrity

Question

What percentage of businesses say it is important to develop leaders at all levels?

83% of companies have identified the importance of leadership development at every level.

How leaders lead with humility and resolve

Humility

Humble leaders use their skills, experience and knowledge to attract and inspire followers, bring people together and contribute to their community.

Such leaders inspire people and align them to their vision. Humility is the core ingredient that every leader should possess and strive for.

Humility means being honest. When a leader can demonstrate honesty and look back on his actions and behaviour, it will provide a tremendous opportunity for personal development.

»» Top reasons to build humility

»» Top reasons to build humility

Acts of humility

Learning from criticism

Admitting mistakes

Empowering others

Learn and develop from failure

Courage and resolve

Taking personal risks for the greater good

Top traits of humble leadership

Leaders know how to manage their own embarrassment.

Humble leaders feel secure in who they are.

Top leaders avoid gossiping.

Humble leaders seek feedback.

Example of a leader who lacks humility

Profile: Martin Shkreli, the former CEO of Turing Pharmaceuticals

Description: He is arrogant, egotistical and does not own up to his mistakes.

Pitfalls of humble leaders

- Your level of humility needs to match the team needs.
- Underdeveloped humility.
- Too much humility can be seen as a weakness.

Rule of thumb for being a humble leader

Power distance:

The degree to which people consider the unequal distribution of power in a team acceptable and legitimate.

The power distance would affect whether members expect a leader to be humble.

Example

When power distance is high, members would expect leaders to take charge and give strong direction.

But when power distance is low, members would expect more humility.

